COUNTY CLERKS OF STATE OPPOSE COOK

Official Says Oaklander Is Willing to 'Job' Others for His Own Interests

The following communication regarding the political activity of County Clerk John P. Cook is self-explanatory:

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK, SHASTA COUNTY.
S. N. WITHEROW, Clerk. W. O. BLODGETT, Deputy Clerk.
Redding, Cal., February 26, 1912.

Dear Sir—I am taking the liberty of writing to you, knowing that you were instrumental in the passage of the bill creating the office of Registrar of Voters, and thinking you might be interested in learning how the County Clerks of the State look upon Mr. Cook's petition by which he hopes to prevent the law from going into effect until after the November election, at least.

Some time ago I sent to each County Clerk, excepting Mr. Cook, a circular letter in which I asked whether Mr. Cook's petition was being circulated in the county of the clerk addressed.

Have had responses already from three-fourths of the County Clerks, and in only one instance have I found that a clerk had offered to assist Mr. Cook.

The greater number of those from whom I have heard state that the law will help them very much in the congested condition brought about in registration matters by woman suffrage, and are quite hopeful that this petition will not be made up, as it will work a great hardship upon them.

Of those not benefited by the law, as they had in most cases been previously provided for by receiving a fee for each registration, nearly all of them were generous enough to state that they were glad this new law would be of benefit to the less fortunate ones.

It would appear from the letters I have spoken of that Mr. Cook must intend to make up his petition mainly in your county, and I know you will gain the everlasting gratitude of the majority of the County Clerks of the State if you can in any way assist us by endeavoring to prevent Mr. Cook from securing the necessary signatures to his petition.

I know that if the people of the State understood the true condition of things he could hardly get a signature to such a petition, for some time before the special meeting of the Legislature he wrote me that "if at the coming special session a concerted effort is not made to give County Clerks extra assistance because of the adoption of woman suffrage, we will be strictly 'up against it,' as it will double the work of the clerk's office election years."

It appears now that he is willing to leave all of the rest of us "up against it" just because he is unable to land this office from his Board of Supervisors. This is the way the majority of the County Clerks express themselves about it in substance.

Very truly yours,
S. N. WITHEROW, County Clerk of Shasta County.

New Counterfeit $5 Certificate Is Found

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The secretary of the treasury today announced the discovery of a new counterfeit five-dollar silver certificate. It is an imitation of the certificate containing the Indian head series of 1899 and is described as a "crudely executed etching with silk fibre of the genuine imitated by red and blue ink lines."

Sunday Tribune Grows Better Every Issue

A growing circulation and an increased advertising patronage—proof of the goodness of THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE. Read tomorrow's issue and you'll understand the whys and wherefores.

THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE HAS THE GREATEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER CIRCULATED IN ALAMEDA COUNTY.

There's more than one reason for it. The excellent news service of THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE is a reason. The special features constitute a host of reasons. Here they are:

Suzette's snappy page of sidelights on local society; reports of the sport world; Lillian Russell's page of beauty talks, illustrated in color; colored page that tells of fashion's latest dictates; three pages of pictured and written news from foreign sources gathered by world-famous experts of the International News Service; two pages of theatricals, commenting on persons and things on Oakland's stage; four pages of comics in color, a delight for the "kids"; business and politics reviewed by students of both.

As for the news service: Splendidly trained men and women reach out in every direction of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and surrounding cities and towns in their search for news. The International News Service spins a tale of the world's doings over its many wires. THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE makes a specialty of news—it is primarily a NEWSPAPER.

Missing THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE is a lot worse than missing your extra Sunday sleep. It is a pity if you do either.

RAIN WILL SOON BE HERE

Storm Veers to the East to Temporary Injury of Central California

Weather Bureau Expects Slight Showers in This Vicinity Today and Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—The veering to the east robbed Central California temporarily from the season of drouth, according to Professor Alex. G. McAuley of the United States weather bureau here. The change in the direction of the wind from the southwest sent the storm through the valley of the Colorado and the area of greatest disturbance is now over Northern Arizona and Utah.

"There are indications of slight showers today and tomorrow," said Professor McAuley, but it is not probable that the precipitation will be heavy enough to be of much benefit to crops. Conditions are unsettled and it is impossible to make a prediction reaching many days ahead.

STORM IN MIDDLE WEST.
KANSAS CITY, March 2.—A heavy snowstorm prevailed over Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota today.

Taft to Attend Affair in Honor of William Dean Howells.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—President Taft left Washington today for New York, where he will be the guest tonight of Colonel George Harvey at a small dinner given in honor of William Dean Howells, the author. The President will return to Washington early Sunday morning.

Chinese Freed by Dutch Authorities

Promise of Orientals to Be Good Results in Release at Batavia.

BATAVIA, March 2.—All the Chinese who were arrested here by the Dutch authorities, because of disturbances during the celebration of the declaration of the Chinese republic, were released on the promise of their leaders to prevent a recurrence of the disturbances.

30,000 Men's Tailors Strike in Prussia

Demand for Increase in Wages Denied and Industry Is Tied Up.

BERLIN, March 2.—Thirty-one cities in Prussia, including Berlin and other large cities, have been affected by the strike of 30,000 men's tailors. Their demand for an increase in wages has been refused.

Wealthy Miners Murdered While Working in Alaska

SEATTLE, March 2.—Mail advices received today from Georgetown, Alaska, tell of the murder of Gus T. and John Nelson, wealthy miners, who were shot last July while prospecting on the Kuskowim river. An Indian who witnessed the crime reported it last fall, but could not tell the names of the victims. When the winter freeze-up came the water receded, exposing their boat, containing camp outfit, grub box and suitcases with their names attached. The bodies have not been found. The police for the murder has not been determined.

'Our Toothbrush' Is Condemned in Congress

WASHINGTON, March 2.—"If I had my way I'd make it a penal offense for any mother to put a toothbrush in the mouth of a child," declared Representative Cyrus Sulaway of New Hampshire today at a hearing before the District of Columbia committee on a bill to regulate dentistry. Representative Sulaway denounced the use of the toothbrush as "a filthy habit" and "a good old-fashioned habit of tobacco chewing and snuff dipping."

ADELLA VOLAND TRIES SUICIDE

PET FOX TERRIER SAVES LIFE

MRS. ADELLA VOLAND-BURBANK, who, while despondent, attempted to commit suicide by gas asphyxiation.

'Scurrilous Tales Spread by My Daughter's Husband Cause of Action,' Says Parent

The scurrilous tales spread about by George D. Burbank, my daughter's husband, from whom she is now trying to get a divorce, and his friends, which are constantly brought to her, are the direct cause of her action of last night.

In these words Mrs. I. Voland explains the attempted suicide, last night, of her daughter, Adella Voland-Burbank, who after disappearing for several days, was found in Niles and brought home. She turned on the gas in her bedroom at the Voland home, 820 Linden street, in an attempt to end her life.

The mother was awakened at 2 o'clock this morning by the barking of a small fox terrier, the pet of the family. The little animal scratched on her bedroom door and barked and yelped, arousing the mistress of the house, who, smelling gas, at once investigated. The police were notified and the girl taken to the receiving hospital.

The mother at first called the affair an accident, but later admitted that it was intentional. "I was afraid the publicity would cause my daughter worry," she said. "The poor girl has worried until she is absolutely out of her head, and it was on account of this that she tried to kill herself. The people come and tell her things that her husband says, and she, being very sensitive, cries for hours."

"Last night she was up and around and was allowed her to see a visitor. I don't know who the woman was; it was some friend of hers. The woman evidently told her some more stories about the lies Burbank and his family are spreading, for when she left Adella was very agitated and almost hysterical. She went right to bed and I thought she would be all right. I worried some, though, and the dog woke me up in the middle of the night, or rather, to be correct at about 2 in the morning. The house was full of gas."

"I ran to Adella's room and got her into the hall, where I opened the window. I rang up Dr. W. K. Sanborn on the phone. He said all I could do was to give her air. Then I got the police and we took her to the receiving hospital. She is resting nicely now."

"She has several times threatened to commit suicide. Once she said she would try the gas and another time she tried to borrow a pistol."

MANY ARE SLAIN BY CHINESE

Foreign Ministers to Concentrate Troops at Peking, Where Disorders Continue

Palace of Dowager's Father Burned and Looted; Headless Bodies in Streets

PEKING, March 2.—Many missionaries have been slaughtered by the mutineers in Pao-Ting-Fu according to a report received here today. It is believed they are Roman Catholics.

The foreign ministers here, after a conference, have decided to bring into Peking all the available foreign troops stationed in adjacent ports in China. A force of 1000 troops of various nationalities will arrive here tomorrow.

A serious recurrence of disorder occurred today when a detachment of artillery, headed by a band marched to the palace of Duke Kuang-Huan, father of the empress dowager, and shelled down the gate. They have looted much property and burned a portion of the palace.

Although parties of soldiers belonging to the army commanded by Chang Hui-Chieh last night were guarding themselves in looting, they fought today the looters in the outskirts of the city. Prisoners they took were summarily decapitated and many headless bodies are lying in the streets.

HOUSES ARE BURNED.
In the distant part of the West city considerable trouble occurred. Whole streets of shops were looted and many houses were set on fire.

The civilian population has armed and fortified private premises, while barricades were erected in the streets. The mutineers who left Peking for Pao-Ting-Fu yesterday and whom Yuan Shi Kai ordered to be arrested or killed have been joined by many of the soldiers there. They have looted a great part of Pao-Ting-Fu and burned large areas.

Feng Tai, twenty-two, miles from Peking on the railroad to Tien Tsin, was looted by another gang of mutineers. British troops guarding the railroad there protected the women and children, but the mutineers burned the railway station and held up a train, robbing many of the Chinese.

Yung Ping Fu, where the American troops are guarding the railway to Ching Wang Tse, also was looted.

SOLDIERS IN LEAGUE.
It is evident that all the soldiers of the northern Chinese army are in agreement in the pillaging movement. They are under the belief that the

Merchant Found Dazed; Was Beaten by Robbers

TAMPA, Florida, March 2.—Claiming that he was struck or had been robbed of $104,000 which he had drawn from a bank in Savannah, Missouri, J. E. Fezman, said to be a leading merchant, was found here, dazed and apparently unable to recall what had happened to him. He says he started from his home to go to Hot Springs, Arkansas, and that he fell, or was slugged in Kansas City, and that he knows nothing of what happened since.

Body of Infant Hurlled From Passenger Train

MARTINEZ, March 2.—The body of a four-day-old infant, wrapped in bits of blanket and a piece of striped dress and hurled from a train, was found half-way in the Southern Pacific tunnel near Vallejo Junction late yesterday. Brakenham H. O., a fireman of passenger train No. 44, that left the Oakland moli at 4:27, found the body when he went back to flag another train. According to a watchman stationed at the tunnel, the bundle was not in there when he made his rounds half an hour before.

Woman Kills Self and 4 Children With Poison

SALEM, Oregon, March 2.—Despondent because of her inability to earn enough money to keep her four children from starvation, Mrs. L. F. Jellison, aged about 36, administered cyanide of potassium to each of them and then drank a dose herself. All five are dead.

IT CERTAINLY WAS A GREAT DESSERT

Ye Liberty Is Going to Repeat Last Sunday's Success on Account of Its Great Popularity

When you have something exceptionally fine it doesn't take long for the news to travel; that's what happens to us just weeks; people come in and are taken by surprise. I kept ringing and ringing and everybody wanted the same thing—"send me one of your special bricks for dessert." I said, "I'll send it." I heard it exceptionally fine this week."

We knew it was simply delicious, but we did not think the demand was going to be half so large.

Many requests have been forthcoming from our customers inquiring if we would have this delicious dainty again. We know that all efforts to give them the best and most worth while deserved approval. So we intend to make the same brick for this Sunday's dessert.

SCANT ATTENDANCE IS SURPRISE TO VISITORS

San Francisco Religious Campaign Fails to Attract the Men, Say Speakers.

HOPE THAT OAKLAND
WILL DO FAR BETTER

Raymond Robbins Delivers an Address Before Members of Labor Council.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—With tomorrow's meeting the eight day campaign of the Men and Religion movement will have come to an end in this city and will be under way in Oakland. It is not intended by the leaders that the movement itself shall close until the men of the city have been brought into the churches in far greater numbers than at present and until the churches shall have seriously set themselves to the task of adequately meeting present day conditions with modern methods.

As far as attendance is concerned, the San Francisco campaign is said by the members of the visiting team to be the smallest in the entire series of campaigns throughout the country, and the busy cities are being looked to to redeem the situation.

The pastors conference yesterday brought together 38 ministers. Few of the east bay pastors were in attendance as they will have their own meeting on Tuesday morning. The mothers' meeting at 2 o'clock had about 100 women, and not more than a dozen women came together to hear the man who knows better than almost any in the country.

An interesting meeting was held last night at the 15 men who met had an interesting discussion among themselves. About 25 men reported for the three institutes at the First Congregational church. The joint meeting was held at 2 o'clock. The mothers' meeting was held at 2 o'clock. The mothers' meeting was held at 2 o'clock.

OLD BUNCO TRICK COST HIM JUST $11

Messenger Boy With Package Collects Coin for Well Worn Shoes.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—One of the thread-bare schemes of the confidence operator was successfully worked this morning on George Grives, who paid $11 for a worthless pair of old shoes. A messenger boy delivered a package to Grives to his room, 14 Eddy street, asking him to take it as it was for the man next door. Grives, who has been suspected of nothing and paid the bill charges without question. When his neighbor returned he took him the parcel. He declared that he had ordered nothing and when the messenger boy returned the shoes, filled with holes, were disclosed. Grives reported the affair to the Central station.

Heavy Temblor Felt Through New Mexico

SANTA FE, N. M., March 2.—Weather Observer William P. Earl at Lake Valley, Sierra county, reported that on March 1, a severe earthquake between 10 and 11 o'clock a.m. was felt. The shock lasted a minute and the movement was from north to south. Dishes rattled and houses waked, but no material damage was done.

CAPTAIN TESTIFIES REGARDING WRECK

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Inspector Deering and Labaree this morning investigated the loss of the ship Annie Smale, which was wrecked off Point Reyes, was the chief witness and testified that at the time the wreck occurred he had gone to sleep and had turned over the vessel to First Mate H. Kroeger. Kroeger, who is a reliable witness, stated that the wreck was due to the fact that Captain Anderson, who is now in command of the schooner, had been in distant waters for one year.

STEAM SCHOONER TAKEN OFF RUN

Owner Decides Arcata Is Too Slow for Trade Up and Down the Coast.

Although the steam schooner Arcata was taken from the mud flats off East Oakland and at a considerable expense to her owner, put into a condition for the sea, the carrier has proved a failure and upon completing her lumber discharge up the stream she will be again laid up for an unlimited time. The vessel arrived at this port yesterday and laid alongside Long wharf.

She discharged a small quantity of box shooks at that part of the front and this morning ran around in the inner harbor to complete discharging. This is the second trip of the vessel as a lumber carrier between this port and Marshfield. The first run made by the craft was considered a success but the slow progress of the vessel and her seemingly unseaworthiness of her hull had its effect upon shippers who refused to charter her.

According to reports the Arcata is over 40 years old. When she was first put into the water the vessel was a novelty as few craft operating in the harbor at that time running on this coast. She was considered something of a "speed turner" and was able to make a run for considerable time as a lumber carrier but the introduction of faster and more modern craft soon had her ready for the junk pile and her owner put her on the mud off East Oakland. She remained there up till two months ago, when W. J. Scammell purchased her and put on the lumber run between here and Marshfield.

NEW VESSEL ON RUN. Taking the place of the famous old craft is the steam schooner Washington. The Washington has been owned and operated by the Olsen, Mahoney Co., for several years but recently was entered into recently between Scammell and the Olsen, Mahoney Co., with the result that the Washington will now run for W. J. Scammell. The Washington while running for the Olsen, Mahoney company, worked between this and the port of Willapa. Her new owner will put her on the Arcata's run between here and Marshfield.

The Norwegian tramp, Tricolor, steamship from Long wharf this morning for San Francisco where she will be put on the regular run for overhauling. The Tricolor by working all night managed to discharge her cargo of nitre. As soon as she completes her repairs, probably tomorrow afternoon, the vessel will sail directly from Hunter's Point, at which place she is being overhauled, for Antioch, where she will be in charge of Captain Bugee.

ARRIVES FROM BANDON. Arriving yesterday from Bandon was the steam schooner Brooklyn, Captain McClements. The vessel ran up the stream into the inner harbor where she is discharging lumber. She reports a pleasant run.

The steam schooner Pomo, Captain Lillie, from Albin, and Bowdoin, Captain Lillie, are discharging lumber. The Pomo sailed today for Portland. The Bowdoin sailed today for Portland.

TO TRY CONBOY
FOR FIFTH TIME

Captain of Police Will Again Appear Before Court on Murder Charge.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Captain Michael Joseph Conboy, formerly in charge of the harbor station, who shot and killed Bernard Lagan, a Mission coal merchant, will be tried for the fifth time in Judge Dunne's court on April 2. When the case was called today the date was fixed by Assistant District Attorney McNulty.

TWAS A MISTAKE, JUDGE DUNNE DECIDES

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Attorneys Bert Cadwallader, William Jackson and John G. Kelly, who were yesterday convicted in Judge Dunne's court today of the charges preferred by a prisoner, John Kroeger, that they had murdered him on the night of the shooting of Lagan, were today acquitted. The judge decided that the charges were a mistake and that the men were not guilty.

JACK LATE MISSING FROM HAYWARD HOME

HAYWARD, March 2.—Mrs. J. Late of Hayward communicated with the San Francisco police this morning asking that they aid in a search for her husband, Jack Late, who has been missing since February 21. ## MRS. PANKHURST IS SENT TO PRISON SUFFRAGETTE LEADERS ARE SENTENCED

MRS. EMILINE PANKHURST, the famous London Suffragette, who was sentenced today to two months' imprisonment for rioting.

Women Declare They Will Go to Greater Extremes When They Secure Freedom

LONDON, March 2.—Mrs. Emiline Pankhurst, Mrs. Tukes and Mrs. Marshall, the leaders of last evening's window-smashing campaign, by which the suffragettes succeeded in terrorizing the London tradesmen, were today sentenced each to two months' imprisonment.

These were the first three of the 124 women who were arrested in the course of the street demonstrations and who are to be arraigned at the Bow-street Court chiefly on charges of causing willful damage to stores in Bond street, Piccadilly, Regent street, Oxford street, the Haymarket and the Strand, as well as other busy shopping streets.

The attorney for the prosecution announced in court today that the total damage done by the suffragettes in their stone-throwing manifestations was estimated at $25,000, and on behalf of the government he stated that the time had now arrived when the consideration which has been heretofore shown to suffragettes' raids could no longer be allowed.

The friendly audience, that has heretofore been present in the Police Court at suffragette' prosecutions was absent. The benches were occupied by sympathizers with the storekeepers whose premises had suffered damage. The sentences of the three leaders were received with applause. On the delivery of the sentence by the magistrate, Mrs. Pankhurst declared that she intended to go farther when she came out of prison and that the suffragettes were prepared to go to the fullest limit to show the government that women were going to secure the vote.

Sentences ranging from a fortnight to two months were pronounced on several prisoners, but most of the women were committed for trial at the London sessions, as the damage committed by each of them exceeded $25. About thirty cases were dealt with today; the remainder being adjourned.

SOCIETY GIRLS SPIN ON WIRES

Try Nerve on Flying Ballet Apparatus in the Air at Orpheum.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Frank Dekum, society actor, who has been here with John Drew and now at the Orpheum, had a luncheon engagement with Miss Ethel Dean and her sister, Mrs. Walter Magee, Mrs. Palmer, the toast dancer of the last "Kirmesse," and Virginia Joffire yesterday, and it was proposed that the party should meet at the Orpheum.

About this time the mechanics were manipulating the wires in Panchot's "Flying Ballet," making the customers' test before the afternoon's performance. The four society girls were greatly interested and expressed a desire to experience a fly through the air from a stage the same as the professional dancer. After retiring to the dressing rooms at the suggestion of Dekum the harness was adjusted and the act was on. Miss Joffire's wire went wrong and she began to spin like a top, but finally she was caught by the other girls and found their equilibrium and they swung the ladies out over the orchestra pit screaming and lacking natural poise.

It was an experience which Eleanor Sears, slightly venturesome, has missed through her sojourn down by the waves at Coronado. "Wonderful," cried Miss Dean. "Exhilarating," said the others.

It was mutually agreed that the flying party was a grand success and a luncheon at the St. Francis was the finale. John Morrissey, manager of the Orpheum, said: "My regret is that I didn't see it. They tell me that it's a good act. I'd pay them a good price, too, but I don't suppose they'd even think of $10,000."

CAMPS JOIN IN BIG INITIATION

Thirty-seven Candidates Adopt Ritualistic Work at County Ceremony.

Alameda county class initiation of Modern Woodmen of America was held at Porter hall Thursday evening between the combined camps of Golden Gate, Fraternity, Greater Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, Elmhurst and Fruitvale.

Thirty-seven candidates were adopted, the ritualistic work being exemplified by the officers of Elmhurst camp, with the Uniform Rank, team of Golden Gate camp. Several visiting officers representing the grand lodge were present, among them being H. V. Rees, state deputy; H. W. Brunk, state lecturer; District Deputy, E. M. Watson of San Diego; J. O. Burgess of Los Angeles, A. H. Appel of Santa Rosa, A. S. Alexander of San Francisco and W. N. Rose of Oakland.

This is the first class adoption held by the combined camps of Alameda county in several months. The second county class adoption will be held at Alameda during the latter part of April, the ritualistic work to be exemplified by the San Jose team and officers.

The county contest prize was won by Golden Gate and Fruitvale camps in a tie race for first place. Elmhurst camp was second.

A great deal of interest is being shown in the new proposed Modern Woodmen club rooms which will soon be established in Oakland. This will be an Alameda county club and all members of Alameda county camps will be eligible to membership.

The Uniform Rank team of Golden Gate camp, the crack team of the northern part of the state, will meet the Oakland lodge Fraternity "Brotherhood Uniform team in a series of three competitive drills to be held at Rice Institute, March 14, April 16 and May 18 for a prize of a $50 silk flag. These competitive drills will be held in the form of dress military drills and it is expected that there will be a large attendance from both orders, both locally and from across the bay. Both teams are practicing faithfully under experienced drill masters and the contest promises to be close and exciting. The team that wins will be expected to have an average of over 55 per cent. Army officers from the Presidio will act as judges. Following this series a competitive drill will be arranged for the month of June between the camps of all the bay counties of the Modern Woodmen of America.

NEW YORK, March 2.—The statement of clearing banks for the week shows that the banks held $25,146,200 reserve in excess of legal requirements. This is a decrease of $4,227,150 in the proportionate cash reserve as compared with last week.

"My, but that is a delicious dessert"

said one of our customers who was allowed to sample tomorrow's special brick this morning while we were getting ready to make tomorrow's supply.

We have taken a lot of choice, clean walnut nut meats and crushed them in cream, making a walnut ice cream that is simply past description. It is so delicately flavored, so different from anything else you've ever tasted, that you must try it.

Then the other layer of the brick is to be peach water ice, made of real peach juice preserved during the season in large glass retainers at our own factory for just such purposes. You'll think it's the best peach ice you've ever tasted.

25c for a pint brick if you call at the store.
50c for a quart brick if you call at the store.
80c for a quart brick if we deliver it.

STREET SPEAKING MAY BE STOPPED

Clash Between Oakland Police and Members of I. W. W. Is Expected.

War between the Oakland police department and members of the Industrial Workers of the World better known as the I. W. W. is forecasted in a statement made today by Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner. He declared that the activities of the members of the organization have become very nearly unbearable in their street speaking, and that the permits to speak upon the streets may be withdrawn if the trouble continues.

Complaints have been made by the score to Chief Wilson and Commissioner Turner by merchants in the lower business district about the difficulties with the organization, and the matter has been the subject of several conferences.

"These men are preaching rank anarchy," declared Turner today, after a conference with Chief of Police Adolph Wilson. "They attack and vilify everybody from the President of the United States down to local officials as corrupt, traitors, and they wear and use vulgar and obscene language in their addresses."

MISS POORMAN TO MARRY SOON

Fiance, Who Was Supposed to Be Ill, Meets Her at the Railway Station.

CHICAGO, March 2.—After traveling from the Pacific coast to be at the bedside of her fiancé, Lieutenant Charles S. Hoyt of the Fifth cavalry, Miss Alice Poorman of Alameda, Cal., was surprised at the station by being met by the man himself. The fiancé, who was supposed to be ill, was as well as was rumored on the coast, and he has practically recovered.

The wedding will probably take place almost immediately. Miss Poorman and her mother, who accompanied her, will go to New York before returning to their home on the San Francisco bay.

ACCUSES WOMEN OF ROBBING HIM

Street Is From Santa Cruz and Unused to the Wiles of Fair Ones.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Chris Sander, of 18 Decatur street was visiting with two friends, John Zorbas and Louis Carumbas, at 2:30 o'clock this morning, when he claims that Carumbas drew a revolver from his pocket, forced him to throw up his hands and robbed him of $200. He hurried to the police station and found Officers Cox, Joyce and Cannon, whom he accompanied in a search for the alleged culprit. The patrolmen soon came upon Carumbas, who was still in the company of Zorbas. The former was charged at the Southern station with robbery, and as Zorbas had a revolver in his pocket, he was booked for carrying concealed weapons. The alleged robbery occurred on Bryant street, between Fifth and Sixth.

A Corporation's Grab at the Public Roads.

It looks as if the Great Western Power Company was trying to put one over on the people in advance of the date when the Public Utilities Commission will assume control of the activities of all public service corporations. The Great Western Company is trying to get long-term blanket franchises in several of the bay counties, carrying permission to erect on the public highways, towers, poles, masts, etc., for stringing electric wires.

It goes without saying that no such franchises should be granted. Under no conditions should a private corporation be granted the use of public roads as a right of way for the transmission of a high voltage of electric current. Other power companies have been required to string their wires over private rights of way; no exception should be made of the Great Western Power Company. Public roads should not, on any terms, be encumbered with such dangerous devices as poles and wires. Instead of allowing new ones to be erected efforts should be made to get rid of such as now exist.

In another column will be found a communication from a TRIBUNE subscriber calling attention to the Great Western Company's surreptitious efforts to get blanket franchises in San Mateo, Marin, Napa, Solano and Santa Clara counties. The applications were filed simultaneously on February 5th, but only came to light about a week ago. Probably efforts are being made to slip similar franchises through in other counties, but if so, the operations of the company's agents have not excited attention.

In Napa, Solano and San Mateo counties the applications were passed to print with a promptitude suggestive of pre-arrangement. But in San Mateo the franchise-grabbers encountered a stumbling block in the attorney for the Chamber of Commerce, who pointed out to the Supervisors that the privilege asked for was a dangerous infringement of public right and was wholly without justification. He protested against the public highways being turned into a right of way for private corporations.

He might have added that in this instance a single corporation was asking an exclusive privilege not granted to any competing company. Aside from the disfigurement the erection of towers, masts and wires would cause, and peril to passengers on the highways, it is quite certain that the State Highway Commission will never improve any road encumbered by towers, masts and electric wires. Hence any county that grants the franchise asked for by the Great Western Power Company will bar itself from the benefits of the road construction the State has undertaken. Too late the discovery will be made that a privilege of enormous value has been given away for a song and a corresponding injury inflicted on the public.

All the franchises applied for by the Great Western Company should be held up till the law creating the Public Utilities Commission goes into effect, and the commission assumes control of the activities of public service corporations. The Great Western Company is trying to slip through these blanket franchises palpalably to evade the regulations for public safety and public right that the commission is sure to impose.

According to the New York Sun, only three things stand in the way of a third term for Roosevelt—"the custom of a century, a solemn promise to the people, loyalty to a friend." There are two other obstacles to be overcome—the unwillingness of the Republican voters to accept Roosevelt as a standard-bearer and the reluctance of the people at large to have him again in the Presidential chair. The last we believe to be insurmountable.

Gifford Pinchot indulged in a fine bit of euphemism when he told an audience that the leadership of the Progressives had passed from La Follette to Roosevelt. That is one way of stating the fact that Pinchot and his crowd passed from La Follette to Roosevelt after pledging La Follette their support. It was a poor excuse for wholesale desertion, premeditated treachery and base betrayal. In California the leadership (sic) passed from La Follette to Roosevelt because the State machine composed of jobholders and spoils-hunters deserted Battle Bob at the command of the Governor. The pie-wagon simply moved from the La Follette to the Roosevelt camp. Oh yes, this is a fight for principle all right; also for political pap.

Enemies of the Parcels Post.

An association of grocery men protests against the establishment of a parcels post on the ground that it will injure their business. It cannot injure their business unless, by preventing imposition, it will stop extortion. On the basis of fair-dealing, a parcels post cannot injure anybody. It will stop the express companies from charging excessive rates on small packages, and will enable people residing at a distance from the commercial centers to buy commodities in small lots at a reasonable price.

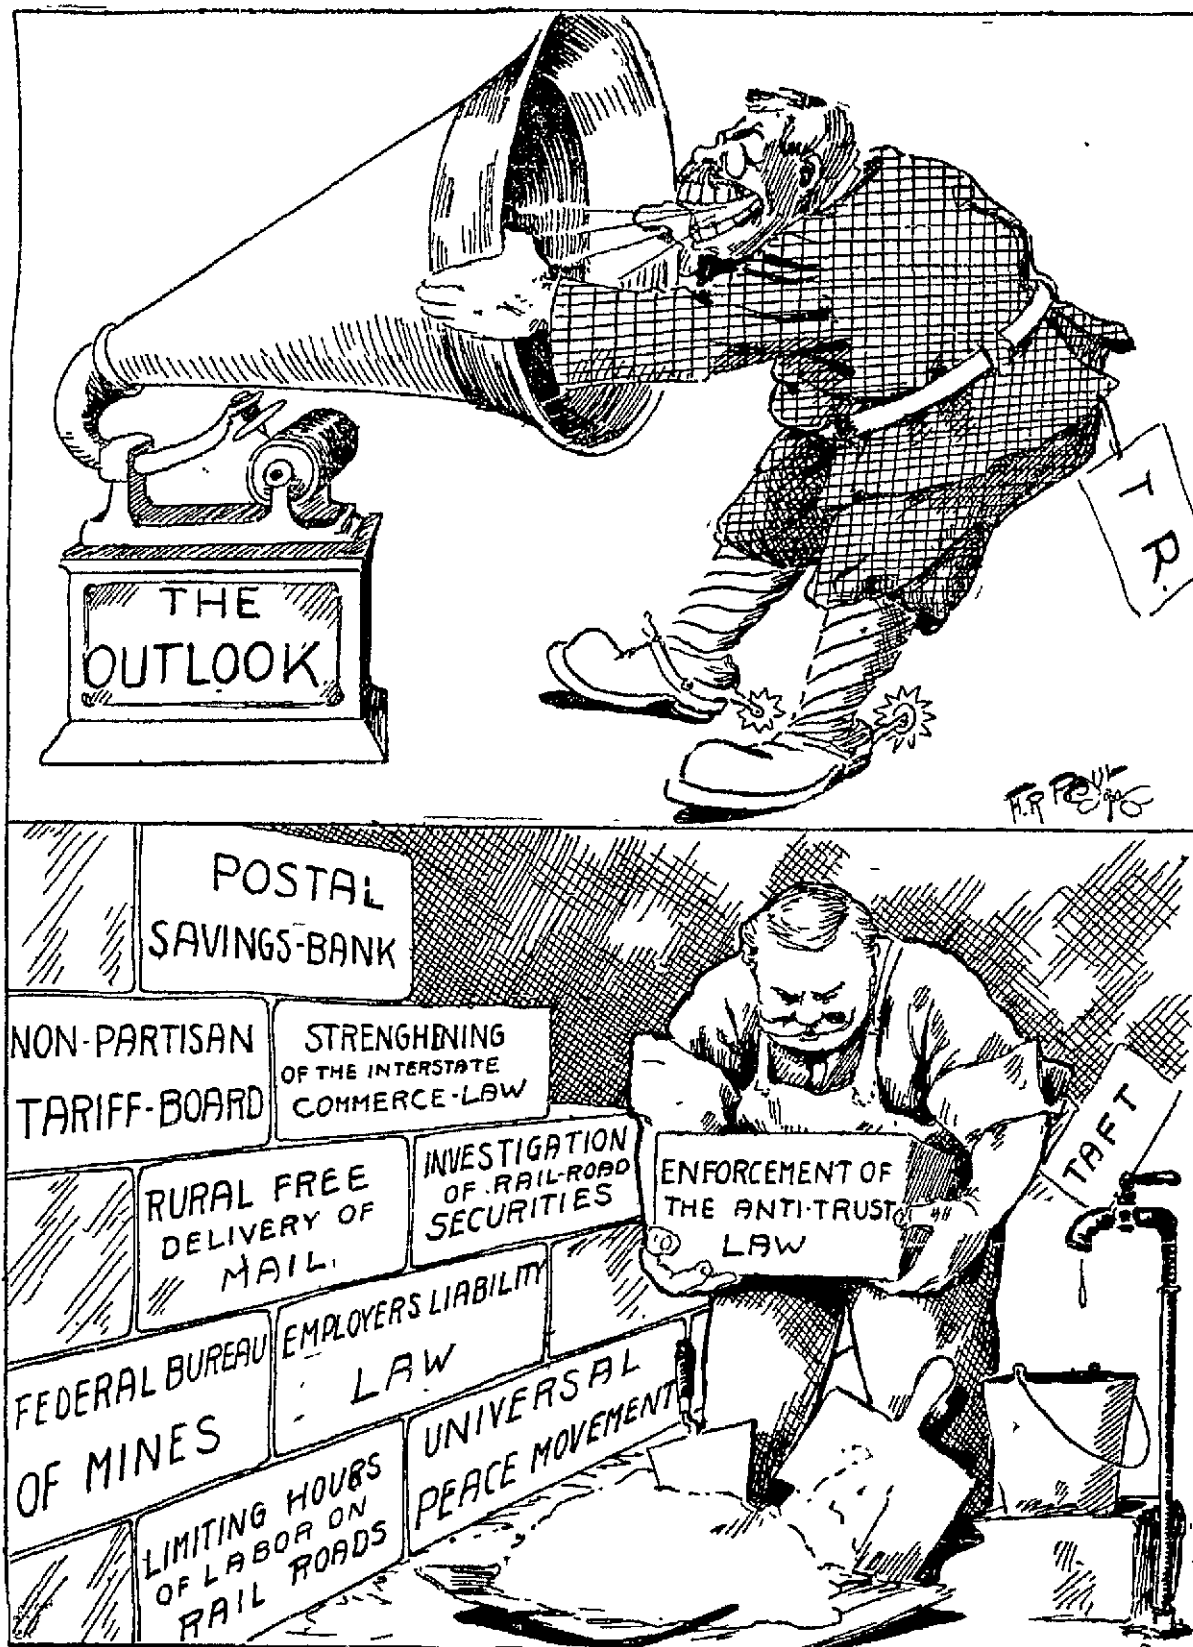

The chief opposition comes from the express companies, whose charges are not only extortionate, but are based upon no principle of justice or fair-dealing. They are employing all sorts of agencies to delude and mislead the people and mystify Congress, and they have succeeded in inducing such organizations as this association of grocery men to come forward in defense of a system of public spoliation that cannot be excused on any legitimate grounds.

It is proposed to carry through the mails packages not to exceed eleven pounds in weight at a nominal cost. Such parcels coming from foreign countries are now carried through the United States mails in accordance with the rules of the Postal Union, but the express companies and their allies stand up and say that the people of this country shall not share in the benefits of this arrangement. Stated bluntly, the issue is private graft versus public benefit.

Unfortunately the effort to relieve the people from imposition is hampered by the injection of other schemes into the controversy. For instance, Senator Gardner of Maine wants the government to buy out the express companies and go into the express business. He professes to have a great sympathy for the people, but when a measure to redress their grievance is proposed he comes forward with a scheme which he knows cannot carry. He opposes the parcels post because on the ground that he wants government ownership. He puts aside a reality for an abstraction, and proposes to postpone an act of justice because he desires, ostensibly, to right a wrong in a different way—a way that he knows is an impossibility under present conditions.

But there is no getting away from the fact that behind such reformers as Senator Gardner and such business organizations as the grocery men's association stand the express companies and their allies, the big railroad corporations. For the government to take over the business of the express companies is for the government to enter into a transportation partnership with the railroads. It is not to be thought of. And it is absurd to say that an act of public justice shall not be done because it may be possible to decrease the profits of a certain class of middlemen.

WORDS AND DEEDS

What to Do With the Picture Show.

Instead of denouncing the moving picture shows, the better way would be to provide picture shows, clean, interesting and instructive, especially for children, given in an environment that is morally healthful and conducive to good manners and good taste. In this way the picture show can be made to serve an educational purpose and at the same time provide recreation and amusement.

The visual organ, particularly of the young, is the one that conveys the most vivid and lasting impressions to the human mind. It is the one, moreover, that most persistently seeks gratification; it educates as to form and color and carries to the mind stories which cannot be told in words. The picture show of the right kind tells how things look in distant lands, what the people do, how they dress, and what is the aspect of their dwellings and cities.

In half an hour an audience can be shown a succession of scenes which can only be imperfectly described in a book that it would take hours to read. The mirror is held up to nature and actual performance, and thus touches the fancy and the imagination and stimulates a desire to learn. How often do people leave the picture show to read in books about what they have seen there? If the subjects kaleidoscopically presented be worthy of interest, elevating and instructive to the mind, the picture show serves a useful educational purpose. Therefore it is a thing to be encouraged when it presents wholesome scenes and objects of contemplation amid wholesome surroundings.

It is unfortunately true that many of the picture shows pander to the tastes of the vulgar and prurient and are given in places that bring the young in contact with demoralizing phases of life; but the way to counteract the debasing influence of such exhibitions is to give picture shows of the right kind in places where the atmosphere is clean and moral and inspiring to the better instincts. Some of the picture shows that are vulgar and demoralizing in their appeal to the love of sensation and morbid interest, are not under the ban of the law because they are not actually pornographic, but merely suggest unclean thoughts and unwholesome phases of life. But social organizations can deprive them of a large share of the patronage such exhibitions now receive by providing, or assisting to provide, picture shows of a different type and character—by making use of the picture show to portray the novel features of human life; the pulsating activities in strange lands, the pictorial aspect of extraordinary incidents throughout the world.

It cannot be destroyed, for it enables one to travel, with the aid of the eye, into strange lands among strange peoples, and see in photographic detail the wonders of the earth. Within judicious scope and under proper direction, it can be made an enlightening moral influence, of great service to mankind. The thing to do, therefore, is to take it out of the hands of blackguards and fakers and away from the proximity of saloons and other demoralizing surroundings. In that way it can be made a potent agency for the social uplift.

A Los Angeles man dreamed that he was shot by the explosion of a pistol his niece was handing him, whereupon he rushed into her room and demanded the revolver in her bureau. In the nervous hurry of handing him the weapon it was discharged, wounding him in the abdomen. That is what comes of paying serious heed to dreams. Had the man quietly remained in bed he would not have been hurt. He foolishly did all he could to bring about a fulfillment of his dream.

The Republican Progressive League of Texas appears to be really progressive. It has declared for Taft and rejected the appeal for the people to issue a spontaneous call for Roosevelt.

MILL VALLEY CANYON

The vale blinks her eye at the first peep of dawn,
And join—may we not—in her meek morning prayer,
Making shrine of the hills all draped velvet green?
Yea, kiss ye your hand to the peace everywhere.
From the waysides in bloom and the village a-hum,
To the fields climbing up to the far mid-air!
See, yonder, in pride, Tamelpals lifts his head,
With his crest clear defined as a king's in the sky;
One would think he is counting the charms of his bride,
With the trace of a frown lest the least of them die;
And from him we may learn, wherever we turn
How his grandeur and calm our souls amplify.

And think ye to prize the vale's go-and-come,
Rhyming sweet as a hymn of soul-melting phrase—
A soothing of years to the heart's fondest thrum
Of the home-life of yore and its love-lingering lays;
Can you weigh well the worth of a heaven on earth,
Where the best in ourselves reigns the queen of our days?
Come stay with me then, from Earnscliffe's near gate,
Whence the shen plays its hide-and-go-seek in the glade,
To watch with me there the gloaming await
The stars all as yet within ambuscade;
And tell yourself then, have you ever yet seen
A heaven so born of earth's light-and-shade?

'Tis a wee bit of earth in homespun attire,
Bedding within fringes of a Golden Gate glow;
'Tis a wee bit of heaven, a wooing desire,
On the love-swing of time in its coming to go;
And who would despise, be he foolish or wise,
What the twain of them have on us to bestow?
—J. M. HARPER.

(Respectfully inscribed to Mrs. J. J. Newbigin of Earnscliffe, whose poetic appreciation of nature forms one of the charms of the Mill Valley Canyon.)

Pointed Paragraphs

Many an innocent picture is framed in life.
Even the wisest of us get fooled occasionally.
A man with a high aim in life seldom carries a gun.
Birth is an accident from which some men never recover.
A fresh love affair is the best glue for mending a broken heart.
Do not point the finger of scorn just to show off your rings.

INSANE IN U. S.

A special census of 372 institutions for the care of the insane was taken by the United States Census Bureau in 1910, and the number of insane persons in the institutions on January 1 of that year was found to be 187,454. The number admitted during 1910 was 60,603 and the number discharged was 13,889. A special census taken in 1904 showed the number in institutions to be 150,151, and the number of persons committed during that year was 49,622. In the six years from 1904 to 1910 there was an increase of 37,303, or 24.8 per cent of the patients confined, and an increase of 10,981, or 22.1 per cent of the number annually committed to such asylums. The number of insane per one hundred thousand of population in 1904 was 182.2, in 1910 it was 202.8. The annual commitments per one hundred thousand of population increased from 61.5 in 1904 to 65.9 in 1910, showing an increase of 4.4 in 1910. This, of course, includes only those committed to hospitals, and the increase may be due to an extension of this method of care for the insane and also to the increase in the number of institutions, which amounts to 12 per cent. Massachusetts had the largest number of insane patients in institutions on January 1, 1910, amounting to 34,466 per one hundred thousand of population, while New York had 34,141 per one thousand of population. These states are probably better provided with institutions than most other states and besides have patterns from other states. The District of Columbia exceeds both of these states in the number of patients in institutions, for the District contains the government hospital, which draws patients from a much wider area than any of the states. The number of the insane in hospitals for the insane in the states south and west is much less than in the east. In the states west of the Mississippi river, owing to rapid increase in population largely from the eastern states, the number of insane is less, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, because the population represents a class in which insanity is less prevalent; also provision for the care of insane in these states probably has not kept pace with the increase in population.

BOSTON AND SILENCE

Madame Maeterlinck pays the city of Boston a left-handed compliment. The madame said pleasant things about New York, and having traveled from Gotham to the Hub she deemed it the part of courtesy and good grace to say something handsome concerning her impressions of Boston. All this was to be most neatly done by way of comparison, so New York was alluded to as the city of most "wonderful vitality," and Boston as the "city of silence and work."

By all the memories of Pallas Athens, but this was dubious praise! One need not be severely hypercritical to assume that it carried the implication of having seen better days. Order Silence in Boston in the sense in which Madame Maeterlinck would have it understood! That is certainly the proclamation of decadence as we have back, even to the Boston of a generation ago, when Longfellow and Hawthorne, and Emerson, and Thoreau, and Margaret Fuller, and Theodore Parker and Dr. Holmes, and quite a galaxy of lesser luminaries, were making pretty much all the noise that was made in this country. But to move back the better part of another generation to the noisemaking of Garrison and Phillips, and the effect thereof, is to take a plunge into deeper humiliation by the contrast between then and now.

Boston, until now, has never been in the "silence" class. From the early beginnings of American history, in politics, that city has a record of accomplishment and enlightenment, and denunciation that reaches all the way from Samuel Adams to Charles Sumner. In religion, it presents the same sort of a record from Cotton Mather to Theodore Parker, while in literature and philosophy the voice of Boston has been the voice of the nation for the greater part of its historical existence.

And now the best that can be said in praise of Boston is to designate it as a "city of silence." It is amazing that the tombs of the notables at Mount Auburn are not vacated and the dead gone forth.—Portland Telegram.

SANE LIVING

Undoubtedly one of the chief causes of the high cost of living is to be found in the fact that the average American consumes every day a much larger quantity of food than his body requires. We are the nation that eats in this world. The table which a few years ago saw a roast or steak or stew upon the board once a day, now groans beneath its burdens of pork and beef and mutton twice daily, or even three times. The leg of lamb which formerly was sufficient for dinner two days, now serves for but one meal. We eat a greater variety of food than we need, too, and the average American in moderate circumstances who cannot have in addition to his roast two or three vegetables, a salad, and a dessert, thinks he is being deprived of the necessities of life.

Dr. Wiley believes that as a nation we eat too much, and is not ashamed to give his own case as a typical example. With that just for scientific analysis which ever possesses him, he has ascertained that he consumes daily 3200 calories of food, whereas he needs only 2500 calories on 2000, and he is better for it, physically and financially. That he indulges thus in overfeeding simply proves that he is a typical American. He admits that he lacks the strength of character to cut down his diet, and that is the trouble with most of us. The man who learns to control his appetite need not worry if butter goes to 50 cents a pound for a week or two in midwinter. He has a way to beat the Edin board, and increase his health and vitality at the same time.—Washington Post.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

Professor E. W. Hilgard of the University of California has gone south to establish experiment stations in agriculture at Los Angeles and Pomona.

Ex-Councilman O. C. Kirk has announced his candidacy for a place on the board of public works.

The Chase Street Congregational church in West Oakland held one of the biggest benefit affairs ever given in Oakland. Among those taking part in the program were Miss Alice Carrington, Mrs. John Jackson, Miss Ella Corliss, Miss Hattie Simpson, Hattie Savage, Hal Wood and others.

The first issue of the Oakland Herald, a new weekly paper, has been put on the street. J. M. J. Kane is the editor and proprietor. Kane was formerly the editor of the Oakland Independent, selling the latter to Joseph N. Ponte of Niles.

Mrs. Hannah E. Works lost her suit against the Remillard Brick Company, in which she claimed $50,000 for the death of her husband, Henry Works, who was killed by a falling brick in the factory of the company.

Somers have been ordered laid on East Twelfth street between Eleventh and Twenty-sixth avenues. The work is to be rushed to completion, as the district is badly in need of the improvement.

Miss Mabel Meyer was given a surprise party at her home on Wood street, a large number of Oakland society folk attending the affair. Among the guests were Miss Mabel Meyer, Albin Johnson, Lena Jeffries, Frank Adams, George Dunster, Harry Baker, Lucy Olsen, Miss Wyckoff and others.

The Working Woman's Club, a new Oakland organization, meets for the first time since organizing. Mrs. Heeme, the world's fair commissioner on silk worm culture from this state, will address the members of the organization.

Fifth street property holders file protest against the grading and macadamizing of the street, claiming too much expense.

WARSHIPS TO BE PUT IN RESERVE

Vessels With Small Crews Will Be Kept in Readiness for Service.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Many fine warships will go into the reserve fleets by order from the navy department. When Admiral Alfred Reynolds takes command of the Pacific reserve fleet at Puget sound on March 15, he will have in his command the Pennsylvania, Oregon, Raleigh, and several others. The West Virginia, Milwaukee, Charleston, Chattanooga, Galveston and Cleveland will be added as they become available. The Atlantic reserve fleet will be organized about May 1 at Philadelphia under the command of Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight. The formation of reserve fleets, into which vessels not in service are being placed, is a distinct advance in naval policy, for while these fleets will have reduced crews they can be sent to sea on short notice. Each ship will make short cruises during which steaming trials and target practice will be held. The regulations are so comprehensive as to prevent the deterioration to which ships are subject when out of commission and necessarily will keep them in efficient condition.

RADICAL CHANGE IN ARMY DRESS

Officers at Leavenworth Are Subjected to Severe Restrictions.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., March 2.—Officers are prohibited from wearing civilian evening dress in garrison by an order posted at the army service schools at Fort Leavenworth today. Radical changes in habits of dressing among army men are provided. Officers will not be allowed to wear olive drab uniforms on the limits of the post except when it is prescribed for special duty or when taking exercises. Enlisted men will be required to wear the dress uniform on retreat when on parade and campaign hats will not be allowed except when prescribed for some formation. Heretofore officers seldom have been seen outside the fort save in the olive drab uniform.

VALUES HIS LEG AT $100,000 IN SUIT

STOCKTON, March 2.—Alleging that he had been seriously injured through the carelessness of the Southern Pacific Company, John M. Goins yesterday filed a $100,000 damage suit against that corporation. Goins alleges that on October 4, 1911, he was a passenger on the train running between Sacramento and Stockton; that he got off the train at Lodi. The train started sooner than scheduled on the time tables. He claims that in boarding the car the handrail pulled out and threw him beneath the wheels, with the result that his leg was fearfully mangled. Subsequently he had it amputated. In addition to exemplary damages he demands $162 for medical fees.

STEALS OWN CLOTHES FROM PAWN BROKER

BOSTON, March 2.—Stealing his own clothes from a pawnbroker to whom he had sold them is the crime charged against Frank Warren Dupure that led to his being held Thursday for the grand jury on a charge of breaking and entering.
Dupure, who is 28 years old, graduated a few years ago from the University of California, being registered from Los Angeles. Recently he received $1700 by the death of his mother and started for Boston, landing here a few days ago with only $500 left. When the money was gone he sold all his clothes and his trunk at the second-hand store of Hyman Levine, on Merrimack street. Finally the proceeds went, too.
For three days Dupure went without food. Driven to desperation, according to the story he told, he stole it all. He is alleged to have taken a taxi, worth, that had been his own, and two suitcases in which to carry them away.

'HIS HONOR' WAS KEEN FOR BUSINESS

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., March 2.—Keen competition between local magistrates who employ ruffians to meet eloping couples from Kentucky, so as to get the jobs of marrying the elopers, caused an altercation which resulted in the arrest of Magistrate Oscar L. Hay today. Hay admitted he knocked Thomas McCormick down when McCormick, runner for a rival magistrate, used Hay's telephone to arrange for a wedding. Hay was fined $50.

SALOON LOOTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—William Delroy, proprietor of a saloon at Folsom and Rogers streets, has reported the looting of his place some time during the last night. The robber climbed over a back fence, forced a rear window and took $7 from the cash register.

The Saddle Rock Cafe

Talk pleasure in announcing the engagement of Miss Eva Mae Fetz (that sweet soloist) in operatic and popular selections, in conjunction with our own orchestra. Evenings between 6:30 and 8 o'clock, also between 10 and 12 o'clock.

PROBE ATTEMPT TO CONTROL OIL CO.

Van Buren Will Be Called as a Witness in Legal Fight at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, March 2.—M. M. Van Buren of New York, son-in-law of John D. Archbold, will be called as a witness in the Standard Oil-Waters-Pierce legal fight for control of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, when the taking of testimony is resumed before Special Commissioner Jesse McDonald, March 15. No hearing was held today because of absent witnesses.
The Pierce interests allege that through Van Buren, Archbold and others are seeking to control the Waters-Pierce Company and operate it as part of a new combine. The testimony of C. M. Adams, former secretary of the Waters-Pierce Company, who is recognized as a Standard Oil man, showed that the Waters-Pierce Company, in the last six years, paid as fines and attorneys' fees in an anti-trust litigation $2,623,000. The attorney's fees amount to $282,000, and the fines were paid in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Missouri.

ATTACH PROPERTY OF THE GAYNORS

Government Agents Seek to Recover on Account of $2,000,000 Theft.

CLEVELAND, O., March 2.—Attachments on the property of E. H. Gaynor at Sandusky, O., and John T. Reagan at Lorain, O., were served today by the special government investigators, who searched the National Bank of Commerce at Lorain for a lock box said to contain a part of the $2,000,000 which E. R. Gaynor's brother, Colonel John T. Gaynor, and Captain Benjamin D. Green fraudulently obtained from the government on the Savannah harbor contracts prior to 1897.
The investigators admitted they found money and securities in the Lorain bank in the name of William T. and Edward H. Gaynor, brothers of Colonel John T. Gaynor of Fayetteville, N. Y., though in a smaller amount than they expected.

BETTER PAPER RAISES PRICE OF SPELLER

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 2.—The use of better and heavier paper in a new edition of the state spelling book issued yesterday will have the effect of raising the price to a penny one cent, that much extra being used in mailing. The price heretofore has been 10 cents, with 5 cents additional for postage. The increase of one cent in the postage will make the price to pupils 25 cents instead of 24 cents.

NOTABLES IN SANTIAGO AFTER VISIT TO CANAL

SANTIAGO, Cuba, March 2.—Walter L. Fisher, secretary of the Interior; Frank H. Hitchcock, postmaster general; Baron Hengst Muller von Hungarvar, Austrian ambassador to the United States; Count Motke, Danish minister to the United States, and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, arrived here yesterday on board the Prinz Eitel Friedrich from Colon after a visit to the Panama canal. They were welcomed by the civic and port authorities.

LOSES BELT BUCKLE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Mrs. M. Ballin of 2448 Magnolia street, Berkeley, laid a gold belt buckle, valued at $35, while boarding a car at the ferry this morning. The loss was reported to the police.
A sore throat can be treated best from the outside. The throat should be kept gently with BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. Apply at night and cover with a warm wet cloth. The liniment will disappear. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by R. H. Hart's drug store, 1601 Washington street.

NEVADA-CAL. ROAD SOON TO BE BUILT

Line Contemplated by S. P., Is 124 Miles Long, to Tap the Northeastern Counties.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—President Spruille of the Southern Pacific has ordered the immediate construction of the Fernley Northern railroad from Fernley, a station on the Central Pacific, in Nevada, thirty-five miles east of Reno, to a point twenty miles north of Susanville, in northeastern California, a distance of 124 miles. Bids are invited from contractors today. The estimated cost of the project is $5,000,000.
The new line is to have a branch 12 miles long to the timber holdings, said to amount to 500,000 acres, of T. B. Walker, Minneapolis lumber king. All of this acreage is in California. The cost of this piece of road is estimated at $500,000.
This project is part and parcel of a $20,000,000 program by which the Southern Pacific is to extend itself in Southern Oregon, Northeastern California and Northwestern Nevada against the encroachments of both the Western Pacific and the Hill system.

FATHER REFUSES TO HELP YOUTH

Is Accused of Passing Forged Checks, W. L. Mimms Pleads for Mercy.

CHILICOTHE, Mo., March 2.—Denial help by his father, a circuit judge in South Carolina, who wrote that it would be best for him to take his medicine like a man, W. L. Mimms, a youth arrested for passing a number of forged checks, threw himself on the mercy of the court today after he had pleaded guilty. Sentence has been reserved. He is said to have realized about $2000.

ACCUSES FRIEND OF ROBBING HIM OF $200

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Benjamin F. Street of Santa Cruz was stopped by two well-dressed women on Sixth street early this morning, one of whom asked him what time it was. After he had informed them and replaced his watch in his pocket they stood talking to him for several moments.
He left them and went to the Lick Hotel, where he is stopping, only to discover that $200 had been stolen. He reported the theft to the Southern station, furnishing a description of the women.

REAR-ADMIRAL THOMAS TO RETIRE IN APRIL

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Rear-Admiral William H. H. Southern, now commanding the second division of the Pacific fleet, will succeed Rear-Admiral Channing C. Thomas, commander in chief, it was announced at the navy department yesterday. Rear-Admiral Thomas was ordered home. He will be retired under the age limit law on April 27.
Rear-Admiral Alfred Reynolds has been ordered to take command of the Pacific reserve squadron.

TO RECEIVE BIDS FOR FAIR CONCESSIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Bids for certain concessions for the Panama-Pacific Exposition will shortly be entertained by the committee in charge of that branch of the fair and the first matters to be considered will be the moving picture privileges, and the concessions for souvenir spoons and photographs. The movement concessions, it is expected, will be a large number of restaurants, but it is possible that the photographic and souvenir concessions might be given to one person or corporation.

CASCARETS WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Salts, Calomel and Cathartic Pills Are Violent—They Act on Bowels as Pepper Acts in Nostrils.

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your liver, stomach and bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have a backache and feel all worn out. Are you hoping clean inside with a cathartic or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important. Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and fecal masses; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.
Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. 10-cent box from your druggist means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

Quarrel on the Polo Field

Think not of the quarrel on the polo field between John Lawson and William Breece shot like a malignant comet across the sky leaving no trace behind. Those who have the historical perspective of the affair insist that in order to understand it, one must stand at a tip-toe, look over the tops of several months, and behold the San Mateo Polo Club contesting the supremacy of the Burlingame Club. But only the academic, inhibiting, moss-grown cave dwellers insist on leaning up against an historical background in order to watch a bout between two men.

For the modern spirits, the impatient ones who like to "get down to cases" immediately, the action begins when Lawson and Breece pass the lie on the field, and the only historical research work these moderns have done is to dig up the fact that Breece was running Lawson hard for Lawson's place on the team, and that is sufficient reason for the accumulation and jar of the two men's activities into an ugly row.

In many countries and climes it would not be a sufficient jar to disrupt the whole countryside. There would be a little rumble, of course, a rattle of window shades being pulled down so that tea, but only the nearest, and dearest friends of the two men would become embittered partisans.

There is no temperate zone in San Mateo county when it comes to matters of this sort. Indeed, it would be difficult to define the exact boundary lines of any county in California where it does not exist. Over in Berkeley, for example, there is a civic upheaval, and in the center of all the maelstrom is the school board, and there are those outside the cyclone who are inclined to declare that fine, fundamental principles are involved, but that two civic-minded women once met in a campaign and only one was elected to office, and ever since the friends of the other one—but let's get back to San Mateo county—where we belong. One-half the people in the smart set there now refuse to speak to the other half, all on account of this quarrel. The women have all taken sides with their men folk, as was manifested the other day at the Franciscan club, when an un-ward to meet Mrs. X. "One?" he inquired, and then said, with the greatest satisfaction: "There is a place at Mrs. Y.'s table, this way, please."

But Mrs. X. deliberately went the other way, for the two ladies have no love for each other's society now, and all because two men not related to them, and neither of whom enjoys any particular degree of intimacy with them, quarreled over polo! —News Letter

A Mardi Gras Escapade

Apocryph of the Mardi Gras, here's an interesting story that has been told me: "It is a student at one of the fashionable schools for girls across the bay and is very much of a mischief-maker. Indeed, that several seasons must elapse before she is allowed to poke even the tiniest tip of her tiny nose inside a ball-room. Notwithstanding this, however, the little lady had made up her mind to go to the Mardi Gras ball—to get at least a peep at it. But to get for herself just what she wanted, she had to get the permission of her mother. She knew, however, that she would be considered by her mother to be mere folly and to expect the Madonna's sanction without having the mother's permission, worse than folly. "Nothing ventured, nothing won"—to the ball she was determined upon going, and, snarl snarl now—to the ball she went. A. A. One of the popular girls of the smart set, who is a student at one of the fashionable schools for girls across the bay and is very much of a mischief-maker. Indeed, that several seasons must elapse before she is allowed to poke even the tiniest tip of her tiny nose inside a ball-room. Notwithstanding this, however, the little lady had made up her mind to go to the Mardi Gras ball—to get at least a peep at it. But to get for herself just what she wanted, she had to get the permission of her mother. She knew, however, that she would be considered by her mother to be mere folly and to expect the Madonna's sanction without having the mother's permission, worse than folly. "Nothing ventured, nothing won"—to the ball she was determined upon going, and, snarl snarl now—to the ball she went. A. A.

she told of her longing heartily sympathized with her and promised to call and bring her to the ball, keep her under her wing for the hour or two which she and so to it that she was safely sent back in the care of her maid, if . . . would attend to the "offagan-onagan-schoolaagan" end of it. Leave it to . . . Understanding that, as in the matter of a kles, two heads are better than one, she immediately took her room into her confidence and together they layed out plans for her "get-away." They decided that the first thing to be considered was a substitute to sleep under the bed covering, so that when Miss Blank, in making her customary rounds for the night, opened the door of their room, it would seem as though the fair but intrepid girl was enjoying "the chief nourisher in life's feast," even as the rest of her schoolmates. A dressmaker's dummy and a wig from the wig maker's were brought into the scheme and played an important part of the substitute most admirably. Arrangements had been made with the cook-house, so that when she'd been young enough herself to smuggle the foodstuffs a little lady out through the kitchen and into the waiting limousine which followed a few feet in the street. Where the detail of the program passed off without a hitch, and after a sufficiently long soop, at all the carnival de rois, the happy and satisfied child was bundled off again, and was soon in the arms of the faithful cook who had sat up waiting for her. Not just exactly the proper caper for a school girl, but a school maiden, perhaps, but a girl's will is strong, and our hats must be doffed to her for her courage and bravery, at least—Oakland Observer.

Those Gorgeous
Mardi Gras Costumes

The Charles Templeton Crookers left for Coronado on Tuesday evening in the private car Milwaukee taking with them as their guests Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brown, Miss Jennie Crooker, Miss Virginia Joliffe, and a number of others. Specially packed in their trunks are the wonderful Arabian costumes which they wore at the Crooker ball and the Mardi Gras. There is a possibility of a fancy dress ball at Coronado during polo week, and if it materializes, the Southland will also have an opportunity to see the most marvelous Oriental costumes that ever delighted an appreciative eye. There are many who insist that while Mrs. Templeton Crooker's costumes are the most wonderful of any created for the ball, it is not so becoming in character as the costumes worn by Jennie Crooker. Certainly little Miss Crooker here now looked so bewitching in anything as she does in this costume.

GERMS IN HER SYSTEM

Every Woman Should Read
This Advice and the Generous
Offer That Goes With It.

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mere mention of their names, and it is a fact that most of these diseases are of a curable nature. A woman cannot be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we offer to supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it fails to give satisfaction. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to believe our honesty of purpose, or hesitate to put our claims to a test.

There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches, or like remedies for years without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system that shows locally most frequently in discharges from mucous membranes. Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general diseased condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatment should be scientifically devised and faithfully administered.

Reckall Mucic-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years made catarrh his specialty. This remedy is admirably adapted to the treatment of the catarrhal ailment of women. It purifies and enriches the blood, tends to stop mucous discharges, aids in removing impurities from the system, soothes, heals and strengthens the mucous tissues, and brings about a feeling of health and strength.

We want you to try Reckall Mucic-Tone on our guarantee. If you are not benefited, or for any reason not satisfied, simply tell us and we will send you your money. Reckall Mucic-Tone comes in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Reckall Remedies only at The Owl Drug Co. stores in Oakland, San Francisco, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle, Spokane.

HONEST 'COP,' BUT ALAS, HE HAS QUIT

Never Took a Drink in His Life—
Except When He Paid for It.

CHICAGO, March 2.—Policeman Chris Dressel, said to be a model for honesty in the department, resigned last night after completing twenty-three years' service. He declares that at the time he was a policeman he never took a drink nor a cigar from a saloonkeeper without paying for it. Chief of Police McWeeny, who worked with him for nearly twenty years, vouches for the statement.

"The day I joined the force," said Dressel, "I made a vow that I never would accept favors from a saloonkeeper. Many times they have offered me money back to me, but I always made them take it."

"The trouble with most of the policemen is that they start out wrong. When they get under and a uniform they imagine they are privileged to drink and smoke at the expense of the saloonkeepers. That has been the downfall of scores of them."

Dressel will receive a pension of $50 a month.

VAGRANTS TO INDULGE IN BATH—WITH SOAP

SAN RAFAEL, March 2.—"Spotless Town" of fabled fame is to have nothing on the Marin county jail in the way of a bathhouse. The report of the Marin county grand jury for 1911, which adjourned yesterday, advising the use of hot water and medicated soap—daily—on all vagrants, is adopted.

A good scrubbing with soap and water that has reached the boiling point is the daily curriculum through which the grand jury would put every vagrant arrested by Peter O'Brien, the San Rafael police department.

WOMEN, AVOID OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful—And Worse Suffering Often Follows.
Mrs. Rock's Case
—A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when often it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?

Short Sermons for Busy Readers

"HOW ARE YOU?"

"Is it well with thee? * * * And he answered, 'It is well.'"
Second Kings, iv:26.

Nearly every one who reads this has been greeted today by somebody asking "How are you?" "How do you do?" And what an array of answers! Nine out of ten of you have made your reply, thinking only of how your body feels. Now, haven't you?

"How are you?" "Well, I have a headache," or "I have a cold," or "I have rheumatism," or if you haven't, "Why, I am pretty well!" Isn't that the way we answer the question almost all the time? But I protest against our doing so, as the exclusive answer that we give implies such a low conception of what we are.

Am I a mechanism of bones and muscles, with a breathing apparatus that sometimes gets inflamed? Oh, no. I live in that. But this thing isn't it. It only clothes me, holds me, carries me about. It is not I!

"How are you?" What shall the answer be? Remember what you are. A regal spirit, akin to all the great ones that have ever lived. With the ability to enjoy and sometime to match the achievement of them all. Latent in you is the poetry of David, the courage of Joshua, the wisdom of Moses, the art of Raphael, the music of Mozart, the inspiration of Paul, the vision of John.

You are immortal. This old, hard earth is not. This planetary system shall yet be rolled together as a scroll and as an old garment it shall be cast aside. But your soul is not meant to be. It shall live when this has perished. You have been redeemed, if you have accepted Christ's redemption.

WILLING TO SUFFER.

Divinity himself has been willing to suffer for you, because he saw, as you did not, the worth of a soul.

Oh, friend, high born, related to all the saints and sages that have ever lived, yourself immortal, possessed of life eternal, redeemed by God's dear love, how are you as another Sabbath approaches?

And will you answer me, "I am rheumatic" or "I am dyspeptic?"

As well tell me that your coat is torn or your shoe-string has been broken. It is too bad. Fix it. But, dear friend, how are YOU? That's the important question. Is the soul prospering? Are you growing nearer to God? Has the week seen any progress of your character toward what God desires of you?

I believe we emphasize all too much the flesh we wear, and think too little of the souls we are. We speak as though that body were our chief self, when it is not.

You are an immortal spirit. How are you? Growing, dwarfing, standing still? Stop and think of it, and make sure that your spirit is well. And when you speak of your yourself to other people, do give your spirit a chance to be heard from at least as often as your stomach or your liver or your lungs. How are YOU?

ROOSEVELT BARS PERSONAL FIGHT

Declares He Will Not Attack
President During Coming Campaign.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., March 2.—The siege of Sagamore Hill, began yesterday when Colonel Roosevelt made his first appearance in his home town since his declaration of willingness to accept the Presidential nomination. A full-fledged battalion of correspondents and telegraph operators came down from New York with the Colonel.

For months the Colonel has declined to be interviewed while at Sagamore Hill, but yesterday he signalled his entrance into the campaign by lifting the embargo. He was perfectly willing to talk, but said there was not a thing to say just now.

Colonel Roosevelt was pressed for an expression of opinion concerning the statement by Senator Dixon, his campaign manager, in which President Taft's administration was criticized sharply. He said he had not read the Senator's statement and was not qualified to express an opinion.

The impression was general that the lines of battle would be drawn sharply as the result of the broadside fired by the Roosevelt forces at President Taft. Colonel Roosevelt made it clear, however, that he intended to do everything in his power to avoid the appearance of attacking the President and to prevent the issue from becoming personal.

The Meddler

VERY talented Englishwoman, Mrs. W. K. Clifford, spent the early part of February in New York. She is a very clever woman, a novelist who has achieved much distinction in England, and a keen observer. So her impressions of American women are of great interest, and especially as Mrs. Clifford gives them to us most truthfully. A paragraph from one of her interviews is worth quoting:

"And your women are different from others. I am very much struck by the keenness of American women of the educated class. It was shown by their interest in all sorts of things, especially in literature, the stage, and art—perhaps somewhat more in the former two than in the latter.

"I had an opportunity to appreciate this keenness of interest at a meeting this week of the Wednesday Club which I attended. The women who spoke were excellent. Their sentences were well-balanced and delivered without any hesitation. Englishwomen could do nothing like it.

"It seems to me that women in America have an excellent time. It is the men who seem to have all the strenuousness of life. Their faces show that they think and work hard. Your men do not loaf over here like the men of the upper classes in England. They do not work like you Americans."

Mrs. Clifford is quite right about the keenness of American women, but she is mistaken if she thinks they do not work. Work is the great saving factor in the American social world. Very few women are now content to sit idly down, with folded hands, and let life in a lazy dream drift by. American women are extremely well-educated. A high school education has been made possible for almost all girls, and a great many women have gone on into higher fields of learning. American women are very much alive, very vitally interested in the conditions about them. And they are specially keen in regard to the conditions that surround their children, and that surround workingwomen. And this gives them a great deal to think of and a great deal to do. The average woman of the smart set gives out something in this world; she cultivates any talent she may have, and distributes her interests as widely as possible. She hails the Lenten season, not so much as a time of rest, but as a time in which she is free to do more nearly as she pleases, since the weight of social obligations is lifted for a time.

It is quite wonderful the way the women of the smart set have learned to study and the trained talent is always at the service of their friends.

Some women have a perfect genius for philanthropy; they help the right people; they go about their work in a masterful fashion, because they have studied all sides of it, and they wrest success from the heart of discouragement.

There is Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts, for instance. There is always social entertainment in the home of the R. G. Browns. One meets Mrs. Everts and her sister, pretty and popular Florine Brown, at all the receptions, teas and many of the luncheons that mark the passing season in the smart set. They can both play a good game of bridge. Yet life for them is not always playtime, and Mrs. Everts has developed the finest "Woman's Exchange" to be found anywhere in the country. She is a good business woman at the head of a great work. And a woman with a good head and a generous heart can do wonderful things in the great world of work.

Some of the most important things socially since Lent began has been given at the Woman's Exchange, which is advertising "A Matinee Luncheon" and a "Matinee Tea." But perhaps the dear president might as well write of it herself:

"MATINEE LUNCHEON;
"AFTER-MATINEE TEA."

"My Dear Meddler: Our latest advertisement is 'A Matinee Luncheon' and 'After-Matinee Tea.' What do you think of it?

"Ladies so often came to the Exchange for luncheon before going to the matinee, were in a hurry and found it to be time for them to decide what they cared to order. This prompted us to introduce an idea that is very fashionable and popular in some of the most exclusive tea and luncheons in the East. If ladies care to have seats or tables reserved for them, they can do so by telephoning to the housekeeper at the Exchange and they can then tell her what price luncheon they wish. They can do the same for after-matinee tea, and everything will be in readiness for them. It is not, of course, absolutely necessary to give an order in advance, for the housekeeper is prepared to serve any who may come, but it assures the guests of reserved tables, which is always more pleasing to a hostess. It seems to appeal to quite a number of hostesses immediately, as last Saturday there were many ladies who had the matinee luncheon, and even some gentlemen were attracted by the novelty of the idea and pronounced the menus excellent and the cooking delicious. Tomorrow (Thursday) one hostess has ordered a matinee luncheon for ten guests and another has planned a matinee tea for Saturday. There is nothing more delicious than a plate of hot rolled toast, daintily served, marmalade and a pot of Woman's Exchange special 4 o'clock tea. What do you think of this idea, by dear Meddler? Sincerely, LILLIAN BROWN EVERTS"

Of course, we think it a good idea for everyone concerned, and right in the line of advance. There is no reason why we should not develop in our own beloved city some of that social comradeship, that delightful atmosphere characteristic of 4 o'clock tea in the Palm Garden of the Palace or in the Laurel Court of the Fairmont.

There is not any reason at all why Mrs. Reini Chabot and Mrs. Isaac Requa, president and vice-president of the Fabiola Hospital Association, should be awake at night and worry over the financial affairs of the hospital. In the usual hospital work men can give a fair statement of what they do, but women can never explain their charities. Some poor sufferer knocks at their door and help is never refused. "The extra cost of living"—how we ring the changes on that theme!

"And thereby hangs a tale" in the annals of good "Fabiola." It is most interesting to hear Mrs. Chabot and Mrs. Requa discuss hospital conditions; they might be real physicians, so wide is their experience, so far-reaching is their study. The only thing that obliges them to do their great work is an earnest desire to be helpful, to obey the ringing call of "service" that is echoing in women's ears.

As the young women come from the university they are choosing many paths of helpfulness. Miss Martha who has brought up her boys to be fine musicians also.

Mrs. Roland Oliver plays the organ very well indeed, having had ample opportunity to practice in her girlhood days on the fine organ built in the hall at Arbor Villa. Among the violinists one finds skillful players in Mrs. Wallace Alexander and Mrs. Blanche Boardman, and Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton also plays exceedingly well on the violin.

Mrs. Oscar Long not only plays very well, indeed, but she is a good composer as well, and Ruth Sharon plays so well that in the future she may do concert work.

Mrs. George Davis is one of the finest pianists on this side of the bay; so is Mrs. Pearl King Tanner, and Miss Maud Edith Pope has won for herself an enviable place in musical circles about the bay.

We have some wonderfully good singers over here, and many of the women with these good voices could easily enter the ranks of professionals, for among the sweet singers are Mrs. James G. Allen, Miss Mary Coogan, Mrs. Fred Stratton, Mrs. Harry Knowles, Miss Lucy Herrick, Mrs. George Jensen, Mrs. Roland Oliver, Mrs. J. H. Dieckmann, Miss Chrissie Taft, Mrs. Clarence Wetmore, Mrs. Richard Partington, Miss Elizabeth McNear, Mrs. William R. Davis, Mrs. Newton Koser.

Mrs. Samuel Cheyney plays exceedingly well and so does Mrs. Hayward Thomas, who studied under Letchetisky in Vienna.

LITERARY TALENT AMONG SOCIETY.

Among the successful short story writers is Mrs. Charles H. Rowe, and a very delightful volume of poems was recently published by Mrs. Etta Loring Smith.

Among those who have undoubted literary talent are Mrs. Charles H. King, Mrs. J. R. Scupham, Mrs. A. C. Posey, Mrs. E. D. Yorker, Miss Eva Yorker.

In the world of art one finds a wide horizon, and our city is rapidly becoming an art center to be reckoned with. Of course, the Havens collection, represents one of the largest in the state. Mrs. Mary Herrick Ross has won fame by her splendid landscapes and Miss Margaret Herrick by her fine work in portraiture. Mrs. Mark Requa is quite as artistic as her talented sisters, and her drawing is study and wide reading has made her an authority on questions of art, and Mrs. Smith's recent trip abroad has added greatly to her store of knowledge. Miss Mabel Gray is giving interesting lectures on art at Mrs. Youngberg's home, and another exceedingly clever lecturer on art is Mrs. James McLafferty, who was formerly Miss May Benton.

Miss Flessa Gremke is another very bright student of art, and she has done much to aid her brother, Mr. H. D. Gremke, one of the most promising of our Pacific Coast artists.

Dainty needlework is a fine art, and so all over the country "Lenten Sewing Bees" are in order. Mrs. Kales and her daughters, Mrs. Thomas Knowles and Miss Rose Kales, are the admiration and despair of their friends, because of their artistic needlework, and Mrs. James Kenna (Charlotte Hall) is one of the popular and happy young matrons who sews beautifully and who is a most fascinating young housekeeper.

Those activities represent the many things that may interest the members of the smart set in the six weeks of the year devoted to the Lenten season.

MRS. FRANK WOODWARD IS DELIGHTFUL HOSTESS.

One of the most delightful teas of the week was that given by Mrs. Frank J. Woodward on Thursday, who made her sister, Mrs. Henry Martin, and Miss Butler her guests of honor. Mrs. Martin, who was formerly Miss Sylvia Chapman, lives in Los Angeles, and it is a year and a half since she has come north, so her friends were all the more anxious to greet her. Mrs. Martin is a very charming woman, very cultured, and, like her sister, she is a good student. Miss Butler, who formerly lived in Berkeley, has also spent many months in Southern California, and her friends were delighted at the opportunity of greeting her in Mrs. Woodward's home on her return.

The Woodwards have built one of the most attractive homes in Berkeley, in the lower foothills, and in that section where some of Berkeley's most beautiful and most conservative homes have been established. Mrs. Woodward is very artistic. She paints exceedingly well and her work in china is among the best in the state. For some of the lessons she had to go to Chicago, and in her at-

So her home has been planned along lines exquisitely artistic, and it makes a delightful environment for a social reunion. The

WALKOUT OF 1,000,000 HAS SERIOUS RESULTS

EFFECTS OF STRIKE FELT

Center of England's Iron and Steel Industries Tied Up by Walk-Out

Owners in South Wales Prepare for Emergencies and Lay in Great Stores

LONDON, March 2.—The great ports of the United Kingdom, particularly those situated in Wales, from which coal is shipped to every part of the world, and the centers of the iron and steel industries, have naturally been the first to feel the effects of the strike of more than one million coal miners in England, Scotland and Wales.

Many iron works in various districts were closed today and at Swansea and elsewhere work about the docks practically has come to a standstill. No vessels are arriving and the dockers and workmen employed in the local industries have been thrown out of work. Great crowds of these men gathered in the streets and discussed the dispute.

Thus far there have been no disturbances anywhere. In south Wales, however, the mine owners are preparing for emergencies. They have had walls built around the mines and have laid in great stores of provisions in anticipation of a long siege.

RAILROADS AFFECTED.

The railroad and street car services in many cities were further curtailed today.

Only two small non-union mines in the entire country are still at work. One of these is in north Wales and the other near Berwick, on the Scottish border.

The tin plate works of Wales are closing down rapidly owing to lack of coal. Six hundred mills will be idle within a few days and 40,000 men will be thrown out of employment. John Williams, labor member of Parliament for the Gower district of Glamorganshire, south Wales, and general secretary of the Amalgamated Society of South Wales Colliery Workers, told the Welsh miners at a meeting today that he expected a settlement of the strike by Thursday next on lines satisfactory to both the mine and the employers.

The prices of food are rising rapidly everywhere.

DENIES HINK HAS BOUGHT INTO FIRM

Head of Taft & Pennoyer Declares Part Interest Has Not Been Sold.

Reports that the Taft & Pennoyer Company, dry goods merchants of this city, had disposed of the interests held by Mrs. Albert Pennoyer in the concern to J. F. Hink, a department store man of Berkeley, were given positive denial today by J. C. Taft and Maxwell Taft, president and treasurer respectively of the company.

"It is correct," Taft said this morning, "that the company, which is an incorporation, has bought out the interests in the concern held by Mrs. Pennoyer since the death of her husband. But there is absolutely no truth in the published stories that J. F. Hink of Berkeley has bought into the firm. I am not acquainted with nor have I been approached in any way by J. F. Hink."

Curiosity Fails to Slay This Feline

But It Almost Resulted in Death of Four Members of Family.

NEWTON, Mass., March 2.—Because a cat in the household of Mrs. Andrews here could not control its curiosity, four members of the house were rendered unconscious by escaping gas last night and were not revived for several hours. Investigation showed that the cat, which had been left to sleep in the kitchen, had turned on the gas in the kitchen range. The cat suffered no ill-effects from the gas.

FEW MEN TO RESIST INDIANAPOLIS INDICTMENT

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The resistance of a few of the men arrested on the indictments returned at Indianapolis in the alleged dynamite conspiracy will result, according to department of justice officials, in preventing their removal to Indianapolis for the hearing set for March 12. The government has instituted removal proceedings in several cases. Five of six defendants claim they are not the persons wanted. It is incumbent upon the government to prove their identity and this is causing delay.

"I'M FOR TAFT," SAYS FRANK JORDAN
SECRETARY GIVES REASON FOR CHOICE

SECRETARY OF STATE FRANK C. JORDAN, who has announced his support for President Taft.

State Official Declares Himself in Favor of the Present Administration

Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan was in Oakland yesterday and declared himself first, last and all the time in favor of the re-election of President Taft. In the course of an interview he said:

"I am for President Taft. Every man in California interested in the welfare of our state, appreciating the fact that the state is on the eve of a period of great development, should be for him also. His administration has been one of accomplishment along the lines of sensible, sane business performance for the real good of all. Beyond all this, this state owes a debt of gratitude to President Taft. His friendship, exercised so mightily in behalf of California, won for us the exposition and that exposition means for California in the next five years an increase of population of fully 2,000,000 and that every acre of land of any real value in California will double in value."

STRIKERS HOLD OUT AT THE MILLS

The Original Demands May Be Insisted on by Leaders at Lawrence.

LAWRENCE, Mass., March 2.—Despite the statement yesterday of increased wages in all but two of the textile mills, the strike of the operatives officially was no nearer settlement today than before the news of the increase was received. The attitude of the strike leaders and many of the members of the organized labor bodies continued strongly in support of the original demands, which greatly exceeded the offer made by the mill owners.

The meeting of the general strike committee of the Industrial Workers of the World today had before it the matter of deciding on another conference between the sub-committee of the strike committee, the officers of the American Woolen Company and the legislative committee on conciliation. No children were sent away from this city to Philadelphia today, the strikers' committee having decided to postpone the departure because the cases of the fourteen children who were taken into custody last Saturday are still awaiting action by the court.

MORGAN'S ART TREASURES GUARDED

Unusual Precautions Taken to Protect Curios From Damage.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Unusual precautions have been taken by the customs authorities to guard the art treasures, valued at many millions, and imported by J. Pierpont Morgan from his European estates and galleries to this city during the transit to their final destination. Cable dispatches from London state that Mr. Morgan has placed a valuation of $20,000,000 on the treasures, while Michael Nathan, the official assessor sent abroad by the treasury department to inspect the art objects, believes that $50,000,000 is a closer estimate.

The first shipment of the art works already has been received and another is expected within a few days. Not one of the works of art is handled by local examiners or appraisers. The cases in which they arrived are not opened and the invoices of lists of articles describing the shipment are accepted without a question and passed without examination.

NOACK, ACCUSED OF LYNCHING, ACQUITTED

GEORGETOWN, Tex., March 2.—After months of delay, a jury today acquitted George H. Noack, charged with participation in the lynching of Antonio Gomez, a Mexican boy at Thornhill, Tex., last June.

BOARD PLANS TO PROBE QUARREL

The Trouble Between Alameda Pastor and Congregation to Be Gone Into.

Rev. J. R. Perkins' Sermon the Cause of Ruction in Church; Will Be Heard.

ALAMEDA, March 2.—The official churchboard of the First Christian church will meet Monday night when it will thrust out the cause of the breach between Pastor J. R. Perkins of the church and members of his congregation. The pastor, in a recent sermon on baptism, but only the support of the church, had baptized person seeking admission to the Christian church, after having belonged to another, would consider the immersion ceremony as a baptism. This caused the smouldering dissatisfaction of the congregation into open revolt, and the trouble began.

Perkins believes that he is right, and does not propose to retract his statement. The affair is somewhat similar to the trouble which occurred a short time ago in Berkeley, when Rev. H. J. Loken, who preceded Dr. Perkins as pastor of the Alameda church, and was called to the college city, was almost driven out of the church by the views of his successor.

The dissatisfied contingent of the church held its initial meeting at the home of A. N. Daniels, and Daniels was present at the board meeting where Dr. Perkins submitted his resignation. The resignation was rejected unanimously at this, Daniels voting with the rest of the board to retain the minister and attempt to smooth over the difficulty. It is reported that at this meeting a proposition was made that the church congregation who had made an attack on the pastor, be asked to apologize. Perkins stated that he wished no apology, but only the support of the board. Failing this, he said, he wished to resign.

SERMON STARTED ROW.

The sermon which provoked the open rupture was preached on January 21. Some of the more radical excerpts were as follows: "For years the legalistic evangelists of our own denomination have gone up and down the land preaching that baptism is the means God has offered to save souls from being damned in another world. Your minister reviles this morning from such a monstrous perversion of a truly beautiful ordinance. And he is frank to confess that he is not in accord with his own denomination if it holds to the perverted interpretation. The Christian church originally was a movement protesting against the church at large being split into warring denominations each bent on having its own creed prevail. We have said that our mission to the world is that of religious pacificators. Alas! The years are many. We have become a denomination over-riding the world, and the confusion and all other denominations favoring and pacifying union we are all but left out because we are close immersionists."

"IMMERSION A DOGMA."

"Our immersion dogma is a stumbling block to unity in this country there are about five million who practice it. But there are about fifteen million who do not practice it. What clear-thinking person will say that those fifteen million are not in fellowship with Christ? So if we do not accept them into our own fellowship, accounting their baptism as invalid, we make our fellowship above that of Christ's. There is no other conclusion."

"We allow the unimmersed of other churches to break bread with us at our communion table. We make baptism greater than the Lord's supper. We have axated unduly the letter and, at the same time, lowered the tone of the most spiritually significant ordinance of Christianity—the communion."

"Think how a more it is for one of our preachers to immerse one from another denomination just to meet the demands of immersion dogmatists. This is not baptism; it is simply getting wet. Some of our ministers are rebaptizing people who have been baptized, but they do so with a different baptism. They will submit, perforce, just because the denomination demands it. Your own minister will never consent to immersing one who comes from another church unless he believes his former baptism was not valid. Your present minister would rather risk your displeasure by advocating the admission of the unimmersed than to simply go through a form to keep peace in the congregation."

Most of the church members who make statements express the hope that Perkins will remain as pastor. They point out that the church has made the best progress, financially and in point of numerical strength of congregation, it has made under any of several past pastors. They have been able to do more to pull the church out of the "slough of despond" and set it firmly on its feet than most ministers who might be willing to undertake the responsibility.

In defending his views the clergyman states that he believes in the baptism of the church and the community. He makes it plain that he would prefer going elsewhere to being muzzled by limiting regulations enacted by church boards or congregations. Perkins does not believe in the baptism of the church, baptism question or adopt baptism along with immersion. He holds it would be an unwise act for the Alameda church to take such a step until it was free of debt owing to the Church Extension society, which he explains that he merely embodied in his doctrine a more individual view of the baptism and immersion rites would lend strength to the church it would not otherwise have.

MOTT TALKS OF HARBOR PLANS

Mayor Is Principal Speaker at Meeting of Commonwealth Club.

Recites History of Waterfront and Explains Need of Being Ready.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—At a meeting of the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco, held this afternoon at the Palace hotel, Mayor Frank M. Mott of Oakland was the principal speaker. Mayor Mott took as his subject, "The Oakland Water Front and What Oakland Is Doing to Prepare for the Opening of the Panama Canal." He gave a brief history of the Oakland waterfront, reciting in detail as to how the waterfront was obtained from the state and how the city parted with the waterfront, and the efforts which extended over a period of fifty years in the endeavor to recover possession of it, explaining that after the city's rights were established there were still great problems to be solved before the actual work of improvement commenced.

The difficulties were finally removed, Mayor Mott said, and a bond issue of $2,500,000 submitted to the people, which was authorized by an overwhelmingly favorable vote. He described in detail the type of construction which was to be followed and spoke at length upon the splendid opportunity which would be presented for the handling of commerce upon the final completion of the plan.

LAND AVAILABLE.

It was shown that the city of Oakland has seventeen miles available for waterfront uses, reaching from the Key Route pier to the eastern end of San Leandro bay. In use are being developed some fifteen miles of waterfront, of which five and one-half miles is being furnished by the Southern Pacific, Western Pacific and San Francisco, Oakland & San Jose railways, which are the only three companies to have franchises on the waterfront, paying an annual rental and upon the termination of the franchise, reverting to the city of Oakland. The remaining eight and one-half miles of waterfront is to be furnished by the city of Oakland and will be under the control of the city.

"This fourteen miles only represents wharf frontages and does not indicate the amount of space the city can furnish for development of the waterfront," said Mott. "An idea of this wharf frontage is given when it is realized that there is room to dock at one time eighty-five 'titanics,' which is the largest ship afloat; ninety-two more 'Mauritanias' or 125 'Manchurias.' A belt line railroad is included in the general plan, which will place over 10,000 acres of land lying contiguous to the waterfront in direct communication with the city."

WILL BE READY.

In conclusion Mayor Mott said: "The city of Oakland is doing this work, realizing the importance of being ready when the Panama canal is opened. In fact, we are planning to be ready before the canal is opened. We realize the importance of this and we also appreciate the future greatness of San Francisco harbor, that with the development of the waterfront, which is going on in the east and the traffic that will come over the ocean from San Francisco harbor is surely destined to be one of the greatest upon the Pacific ocean."

"Our improvements are being made, as I have indicated, along with the completion of the waterfront, but with us in any way injure San Francisco. On the contrary, we will be of great assistance to her, for the reason that when the shipping interests realize that there is ample docking facilities to be obtained in San Francisco harbor at a reasonable cost, the volume of shipping coming to that harbor is bound to be greatly increased. Today the harbor of San Francisco is overcrowded, but with the completion of the Oakland docks, ample room will be provided. This will not only benefit Oakland and San Francisco, but will be of great and lasting benefit to the entire northern and central parts of the state of California, who will have a new and better outlet to the ocean commerce than they have enjoyed."

OAKLAND PAYS BILL.

"Oakland has bravely and with commendable courage and great civic pride undertaken this stupendous enterprise. She is paying the bill herself. The undertaking is one of such magnitude that it has already excited admiration and as we near completion the outside world will be surprised at the extent of this work and, finally, all that we ask is that we be encouraged, that we be let alone, that we believe we have a destiny to work out ourselves, and we have the ambition, the civic pride and the courage to do this."

He said that he would like to see the city of Oakland as a powerful supporting these great enterprises that are to make of the harbor of San Francisco one of the greatest in the world."

SAYS WIFE MADE THREAT TO KILL HIM

Arthur W. Goodrich declared in his complaint for divorce filed in the superior court that his wife, Maude C. Goodrich, had threatened to kill him, saying that her father had plenty of money and that he would get her out of jail. Further, he claims that she constantly nagged at him and refused to run the house to his satisfaction. He says that one time when he accidentally spilled some hot water on her she told him that he had better be ready to die and that he "ought to die the death of a dog in the gutter."

SLAYER CALM IN COURT TODAY

Harry Prescott Arraigned; Will Have Hearing Next Thursday.

Alleged Threats Made Against Wife Are Told to the Police.

HARRY F. Prescott was arraigned for the murder of Ralph F. Thompson before Judge Mortimer Smith this morning, and the case put over to March 7 for preliminary examination. Prescott appeared in the dock calm and collected and listened to the reading of the complaint without showing any signs of nervousness. Judge A. L. Frick asked that the examination be set for the earliest date possible, as his client was anxious to have the case go to trial.

The inquest over the body of Ralph Thompson was held at the morgue last night and resulted in a verdict that the deceased had come to his death from a bullet wound through the throat, inflicted by Prescott, and charging Prescott with murder.

That Mrs. Kate Prescott, wife of the defendant, went in fear that her husband would murder her, has been learned by the police in their investigation of the case. Mrs. Prescott told the police that her husband had threatened her death on several occasions, saying that he would inflict this penalty if he ever found that she was unfaithful to him.

ALLEGED THREATS.

Mrs. Prescott's statements were confirmed by George Ramsden, who told the police that Prescott had confided to him that he would kill his wife if her behavior did not mend. Ramsden works as a handy man about the house adjoining the little bungalow where the murder was committed. He formed the home of the Prescotts before the husband went to his ranch in Trinity county, and which was the scene of the tragedy which ended Thompson's life Wednesday night.

Mrs. R. Brand, a neighbor of the Prescotts, is said to have told the police that in the morning when she would see the blinds down in the adjoining house she always feared that Mrs. Prescott had been killed, because she knew of Prescott's ungovernable temper. Records of the police department show Prescott to have been possessed of a quarrelsome nature, as he was twice arrested on battery charges two years ago, upon one of which he was convicted.

CONTRADICTION WOMAN.

At the inquest at the morgue last night Mrs. Prescott attempted to defend the memory of Ralph Thompson and her own name by declaring that the body of the man had been found in the dining room of her home after the shooting and that Thompson had taken off his shoes only because they were new and hurt his feet. This testimony was contradicted by Captain Charles Beck, Patrolman Hunley and Deputy Coroner Bert Sargent, who stated that they found the body in the bedroom not far from the bathroom door.

A verdict of murder was returned by the coroner's jury. The witnesses were Louis Thompson, father of the slain man; Dr. C. D. Hamlin, Mrs. Kate Prescott, wife of Prescott; Mrs. Maude Clarke, sister of Mrs. Prescott; Captain Charles Beck, Patrolman Hunley and Sheriff Chief Deputy Coroner Bert Sargent and George Ramsden. The testimony showed that Prescott had shot down Thompson because he had any opportunity for defense. Prescott was present, but refused to testify upon advice of his attorney, A. L. Frick.

Bargain Prices On for Funerals

Dying Costs Less in Kansas City, Kansas, Since Undertakers' War Started.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 2.—A price war is on between the undertakers of Kansas City, Kan., and funerals are cheaper than they have been in several years. The undertakers are advertising extensively in newspapers.

The trouble began several months ago when one funeral director reduced prices and alleged that a "trust" existed in the city.

DENIES CHILD'S NEED OF MOTHER

New York Justice Declares Offspring Live for Own Interests.

Soon Forget Parent and "Grow Just as Well Without Her."

NEW YORK, March 2.—A child has no essential need of mother love, in the opinion of Justice Moreau of the State School here. In giving a father the custody of his 9-year-old son, despite the mother's pleadings, the justice comments: "A mother is not necessary to her children. All children are selfish. Their minds are on their own pleasures. So long as they have their toys and their amusements they are satisfied. Once away from the mother they very quickly forget her. She affects their lives only as she can serve them. They grow just as well without her."

The youngster whose plight called forth these sentiments is Larry Thompson, whose father, William R. Thompson, owner of a hotel at Port Jefferson, L. I., divorced his wife in 1907.

Justice Moreau was asked to decide the question of the wife's right to see the boy at frequent intervals. The lad said he preferred to remain with his father, and the latter declared that any visits from his erstwhile wife would be embarrassing and annoying. The court seemed best to give the father sole custody of the lad.

GIRL FREED OF LARCENY CHARGE

Miss Gladys Wright, Accused of Theft of $750 and $800 Ring, Is Released.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—In dismissing the charge against Miss Gladys Wright, the confidential bookkeeper of Dr. George W. Leek, accused by the doctor of grand larceny, Police Judge Shortall declared that he believed the young woman's story as against that of the dentist.

Miss Wright was charged with the theft of $750 and an $800 diamond ring, and she testified on the stand that the ring had been given to her as a present and that she expected to marry Dr. Leek after he was freed from his present wife through the divorce proceedings that are now pending and which in themselves have formed a sensational bit of litigation. There were charges and counter-charges on the part of Dr. Leek and Miss Wright during the police court trial, and in deciding the matter Judge Shortall declared that the whole case hinged upon the theft of the ring and that he felt that he must take Miss Wright's explanation of her possession of it.

Woman Is Jailed on Embezzlement Charge

LOS ANGELES, March 2.—A young woman said to be Miss Jennie E. Shipperly, under indictment at Denver for embezzlement of $4000, is in custody today and is being held until the arrival of a Denver officer. The woman when arrested gave her name as Mary Burke and denied that she was the woman wanted in Denver. She declared that she had been working here as a private detective.

BURGLAR IS GIVEN 18-MONTH SENTENCE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Thos. King, convicted of burglary in the second degree, was sentenced to eighteen months in San Quentin today by Judge Duane. It was King who created a sensation in court six weeks ago by declaring that he had been beaten and kicked and starved by the guards in the county jail. Later his story was proved false.

President David Starr Jordan of Stanford University lectured before the college Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon on "The Religion of the Sophomore," a freshman class (this year will be held March 13). The freshman team has been chosen to include E. K. Sturges, A. M. Herriek, D. O. Peters and E. L. Kelley.

HAIGHT MOTHERS' CLUB WILL HOLD MEETING

ALAMEDA, March 2.—The regular meeting of the Haight School District Mothers' Club will be held in the auditorium of the school building next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The club has been organized for the purpose of helping the school by contributing to the fund for the purchase of a new building within a year. It has been decided to substitute the stereopticon for a moving picture machine at first place in the fund-raising campaign. The club would raise a fund in the cost of insurance.

MILK WAGON DRIVER GUILTY OF BATTERY

ALAMEDA, March 2.—James Peterson, a driver for the Western Dairy company, was found guilty today of battery, preferred by Oscar Hochstadt, who had trouble over an empty milk bottle which the driver undertook to remove from Hochstadt's door. The bottle belonged to another dairyman. During the mixup Peterson struck Hochstadt over the head with the milk can weighing two pounds. Peterson was found guilty by a jury, and was fined thirty dollars.

OAKLAND GIRL WILL WED ALAMEDA OARSMAN IN APRIL

MISS FLORENCE H. RICE of Oakland, who is to be the bride of E. B. Thorning of Alameda.

Miss Florence H. Rice of Oakland is to become the bride of E. B. Thorning, champion Pacific Coast shell oarsman, on April 17 at a quiet home wedding at the residence of the bride, 710 Madison street.

No formal announcement of the engagement has been made and the news of the approaching wedding will interest the exceptionally wide circle of friends of Thorning and his fiancée, especially in Oakland and Alameda, Miss Rice having lived in this city for many years and Thorning being a popular and widely-known resident of the island city.

Miss Rice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Rice. Her father has held a responsible position with the Realty Syndicate for years. Her brother, Leslie Rice, is assistant cashier of Oakland Bank of Savings. Miss Rice has a happy, genial manner, which has won for her many warm friends. She possesses a bright, vivacious nature and an attractive personality.

Thorning is president of the Alameda Boating Club and one of the most prominent oarsmen on the Pacific Coast. Last July he was awarded the shell championship after Alexander Fape of the Dolphin club had declined a challenge of two years' standing to row a match race to decide the championship. He is connected with the firm of W. A. Plummer. He will captain the crew of the Alameda club, which goes to Honolulu next summer to row the Honolulu club for the Pacific Ocean championship. He will take his bride with him to Hawaii. Thorning is a member of the Alameda Elks lodge.

The wedding will be witnessed by a small company of relatives and intimate friends. There will be no attendants and the bride will wear a traveling dress, with hat to match. The couple will make their future home in Oakland and are planning to build at an early date on a lake-side lot.

BAUER, AT PIANO, THRILLS AUDIENCE

Artist Given Enthusiastic Reception at University Gymnasium.

BERKELEY, March 2.—Every seat in the vast auditorium of Harmon Gymnasium was filled last night when the third concert of the season, with Harold Bauer, the eminent pianist, as the artist of the evening.

The program was exceptionally fine and was given in masterly fashion. Bauer's control of the keyboard is most remarkable, and his interpretations show the finest artistic interpretation, while his pure singing tone is a delight to hear.

The audience showed the keenest appreciation and applauded so insistently that the artist gave several encores.

The program was as follows: Sonata (Appassionata) (Beethoven); Op. 27, of Beethoven; was wonderfully played; while the Schumann numbers were entrancingly rendered with rare delicacy and subtlety of touch.

RICHMOND NOTES

RICHMOND, March 2.—Grand Canon Park company is doing some extensive improvements on the grounds surrounding the station house. The park entrance will be beautified that section with lawns, shrubs and flowers at once. Retaining walls at the rocky hill upon which the station is built are being put in and an automobile driveway will be made.

A big delegation of Richmond Odd Fellows will go to Concord tonight to attend the district meeting of the order. Degree team work and a banquet are on the program.

William McDaniels, the realty dealer who was arrested on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, is still in jail because of inability to raise $1000 cash bail demanded by Judge Lindsay. McDaniels claims to be the victim of persecution and denies the charges made against him.

A 25,000-gallon tank, piping and other necessary appliances, are being installed on a waterworks system for the Anderson tract and Anderson apartments, owned by Herbert F. Brown. A well is 218 feet deep and has good water in plenty.

A pain in the side and back that caused him to be laid up for a week, has been cured by the application of RULIARD'S KIDNEY PILLS. It takes the ordinary kidney trouble without mixing of medicine, without any harm to the system, and without any loss of time. Price 25c. Sold by all druggists.

STEAMSHIP MEN VISIT RICHMOND

Salvador Maristami Views the Harbor and Work Being Done There.

RICHMOND, March 2.—A distinguished party of foreign and local men viewed the Richmond water front yesterday afternoon and evening, after doing the same at San Francisco and Oakland. The guest of honor was Salvador Maristami, representing a trans-Atlantic line of steamers plying between Barcelona, Spain, and New York, who is here gathering the signatures on their petition. The party was invited to view the various water fronts of the San Francisco bay, with the expectation of establishing a line of steamships from New York here as soon as the Panama canal is opened.

He was shown around the bay by prominent residents of San Francisco, including members of the Chamber of Commerce, of that city, Spanish Consul Hon. Arthur Brand, Commissioner Samuel W. Backus, II, Wenzel, secretary of the Richmond Industrial commission, and others, on the government tug Governor Slocum.

"DRY" FORCES GIVEN SHOCK BY CITY CLERK

RICHMOND, March 2.—The anti-saloon forces here are much worked up over the report of City Clerk Vaughn, who verified the signatures on their petition, and states that more than half of them are not eligible as voters upon the special election played for should one be called. This is purely a technicality which will be remedied, the county officials not having received the registrations as yet, through failure of somebody to attend to it. The legality of a large majority of them will not be questioned when properly filed with the county clerk, and in all probability the special election will be called at the next Monday night meeting of the city council and the vexed question of "wet" or "dry" be put up to the sovereign will of the voters.

RICHMOND, March 2.—The Richmond Industrial Commission, the newspapers and the realty board are all in receipt of invitations to send delegates for the first meeting of the proposed new county Chamber of Commerce, which has been called for the 6th inst. A large delegation will be present from Richmond, and all realize the importance of such a booster organization for Contra Costa county.

NEW CONTRA COSTA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

IT'S TOO HOT FOR FLOWER FESTIVAL

Warm Political Fight in Berkeley Withers Hopes of Business Men.

BERKELEY, March 2.—The second annual Berkeley Floral Fiesta has died a-born. The committee in charge, fearing that the division of public sentiment over the school imbroglio would result disastrously to any project that needs united citizenry, decided at a meeting last night indefinitely to postpone consideration of plans.

The floral festival of last year was held under the auspices of the Berkeley Board of Trade and proved a success from every standpoint but the financial one. With the bills finally paid up by the board of trade, the project was broached again this year and met with much preliminary enthusiasm. Charles D. Heywood and a large committee started work on the plans, but soon found the city in such turmoil over the school situation that but little hearing could be obtained for the fiesta.

A meeting to consider plans was held last night at the Chamber of Commerce at which Heywood presided. Talks were made by Charles A. Green, William E. Woolsey, Walter Woodward and George Helms. The general opinion was that the fiesta could not be made a success at this time and it was voted to postpone.

The plan of reopening fiesta arrangements later in the year in preparation for the meeting of the League of California Municipalities was suggested. It was met with a generally favorable reception. It is probable that the committee will reassemble in the summer and discuss this plan. The League of California Municipalities will hold its annual convention in Berkeley in September.

DONAHUE MAKES USE OF TIME BOOK

District Attorney Says That It
Is Merely to Help in Locating Office Men.

In accordance with the precedent set by County Assessor C. F. Horner, in installing a time clock in his office, District Attorney W. H. Donahue has carried out a suggestion made by the Alameda Tax Association and has put in a time book on which the deputies under him will record their "ins and outs" during each day.

Assistant District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes and Deputies Phil M. Carey, A. A. Ryland, E. Smith, Leon Clark, Manly Ellison, "For" Woodard and George Helms will henceforth sign the roll.

"I have put in the time book for the protection of the men in my office," said District Attorney Donahue today.

It is also for our convenience in enrolling to know where we can locate a man on short notice. So far as the actual hours are concerned, all of my deputies work considerably more overtime than under and so far as that is concerned there can be no criticism."

PLANS FOR ALAMEDA POSTOFFICE READY

ALAMEDA, March 2.—Postmaster T. W. Leydecker today received word from Congressman J. E. Knowland in Washington that the plan for the new Alameda postoffice had been completed by the treasury department and that bids for construction would be advertised for on March 15.

Of the $120,000 appropriation secured for a site and building by Congressmen Knowland two years ago, $100 was spent for the site at the northwest corner of Central avenue and Pine street, better known as Park avenue. This leaves $20,000 for the building.

The long delay in starting actual building operations was due to the delay in selecting the site. Several government officials coming to Alameda and inspecting different tracts of land before any decision was made. The Fletcher estate tract at Santa Clara avenue and Oak street was a strong contender against the site at the corner of Central avenue and Pine street, but the price, $30,000, was too high. The site at the corner of Central avenue and Pine street was selected for the new building.

It is expected that the new building will be finished before the current year ends. The improvement will invigorate interest in realty holdings nearby and probably result in the improvement of several tracts of land in the neighborhood, including the Gibbons tract, diagonally across the street.

GIVE MINSTREL SHOW

BERKELEY, March 2.—Berkeley High school club of the Y. M. C. A. gave the second annual minstrel show last evening before an appreciative audience. The affair was in charge of C. G. Dickson, who also acted as pianist during the evening. "A Close Shave," an amusing sketch, was one of the features of the program.

BERKELEY SOCIETY

BERKELEY, March 2.—The Alpha Sigma alumnae gave a dance Thursday evening in the Hillside clubhouse.

The Hillside club will have the members of the Twentieth Century club at their guests on the evening of Saturday, March 16. There will be an exhibition of paintings by California artists and the program for the evening will be in charge of the Twentieth Century club, which will present Johannes Reimers in a lecture on the inspiration of the Out-of-Doors.

The March calendar of the Twentieth Century club announces two interesting programs for the month. On the 6th Mrs. E. G. Greene of Palo Alto will talk on "A Call from Panama to the Golden Gate," with stereopticon illustrations. Mrs. Greene is a student of the Twentieth Century club.

Mrs. M. J. Greener of the Freshwater apartments, and well known in social circles, will leave in the near future on an extended trip which will include a visit to Panama.

The young people of high school age in the Claremont park district will hold their second dance this evening in the Claremont clubhouse. Miss Louise Kelley is in charge of the affair which are proving of great interest to those who have joined the club.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Little Enos to Earl Kaufman, which took place in Quincy on February 25, was made by the bride's father, Mr. J. H. Little. The bride is a resident of Yuba and the groom formerly resided in Berkeley where he attended the Berkeley high school. At present he holds a responsible position with a mining company in Yuba county, where the new home will be made.

MISS MORSE MENTIONED AS CANDIDATE FOR DIRECTOR

MISS BLANCHE MORSE, who is mentioned as successor to Mrs. Elmer Carlisle if the latter is recalled.

BERKELEY, March 2.—Mayor J. Stitt Wilson today issued a third statement in the recall fight again, answering Fred Athearn, one of the leaders of the recall faction. The mayor said in part: "The recall is a recall election of school directors, the recall party is seeking utterly to disrupt and disorganize the whole city council and to heap wrath on the heads of every man concerned. I say to Mr. Athearn and his committee that this is too great a sacrifice of everybody concerned to demand in order to retain even so good a man as Mr. Bunker as school superintendent. Mr. Athearn and his committee are proceeding to formulate the recall and force the strife and expense of the election, but there is yet time for them to exercise wisdom. Sensible retreat is better than utter defeat."

BERKELEY, March 2.—The question of candidates to oppose the three school directors under recall fire continues to occupy the center of discussion in the fight to retain Superintendent F. F. Bunker. Whether any women candidates will enter the fight is a question which is expected to be answered in a few days. Mrs. Elmer Carlisle will be between Miss Blanche Morse and Adelaide Marquand.

The struggle of a year ago will be practically duplicated. At that time the Good Government party backed Mrs. J. E. Hume against Mrs. Carlisle. Mrs. Hume was practically Mrs. Hume's campaign manager. This year it is not expected that Mrs. Hume will enter the lists, but that Miss Morse will do so is now believed.

ATTACKS GIRL IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

McKinley School Pupil Fights Free of Assault in Front of Church.

BERKELEY, March 2.—Every effort is being made by the police to apprehend a girl who yesterday afternoon attacked Marion Small, daughter of Dr. Annie Small of 2600 College avenue and attempted to drag her into an alleyway alongside the First Christian church. So far no trace of the miscreant has been found.

The girl is a pupil at the McKinley intermediate high school and is 14 years of age. Today she had somewhat recovered from her fright and was able to tell of the attack.

She was going home from school and had decided to walk over to the university campus on the way. Next to a vacant lot at Dana street and Bancroft way she passed the First Christian church. Suddenly a man sprang at her from the back of the church and seized her by the coat, trying to drag her from the sidewalk toward the back of the church.

The girl was too frightened to cry out but resisted him with all her might. She was finally released when she was hit on the head with a brick and the man fled into submission.

At this the child started away from him along Dana street. The man called out to her, asking her to come back and offering to give her candy. She ran back to the school where she found Principal C. L. Biedenbach and reported the attack to him. Biedenbach informed the police and a search was made for the miscreant. He was finally located and taken into custody.

FOUR ARTISTS TO GIVE PROGRAM

"The Two Grenadiers".....Schumann
Mr. Post.

SON OF PASTOR CAUSES FIVE HOURS OF WORRY

BERKELEY, March 2.—Five anxious hours were spent yesterday afternoon in discussion at the monthly afternoon service of the First Baptist church, when little Dickie Vaughan wandered forth into the world alone. The boy was finally found by the police admiring the architecture of the Carnegie library on Shattuck avenue and returned to his worried parents. The Vaughns live at 2444 Carlton street.

At this the child started away from him along Dana street. The man called out to her, asking her to come back and offering to give her candy. She ran back to the school where she found Principal C. L. Biedenbach and reported the attack to him. Biedenbach informed the police and a search was made for the miscreant. He was finally located and taken into custody.

CITY CLUB TO DISCUSS AFFAIRS OF COUNTY

BERKELEY, March 2.—Alameda County Affairs will be the general subject of discussion at the monthly meeting of the City Club Monday evening, March 11. Mark L. Requa, president of the Tax Association of Alameda County, will be the speaker.

GRADUATE WINNER OF ESSAY PRIZE

Bayard Hale Jones of the U. C. Class of 1907 Takes Beale Contest.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, March 2.—Bayard Hale Jones, graduate of the university in the class of 1907 and later a student at Harvard university, has been declared winner of the $600 first prize in the Truxton Beale prize essay contest. His essay, with the others submitted, was on Count Tolstoy's book, "What Shall Be Done." The second prize of $400 goes to Sheldon Cheney, graduate of the class of 1908 and son of Mrs. May L. Cheney, appointment secretary of the university.

Among those given honorable mention were Smith Thompson, a graduate student at the university; Newton B. Drury, president of the Associated Students; Miss Lillian Matthews, University of Iowa graduate and a candidate here for doctor's degree, and Miss Mary Ade, 2550, a graduate of the university two years ago. The committee of award praised all of the essays submitted as being of excellent quality and has recommended that all of them be printed.

The committee selected to award the prize consisted of Professor W. C. Mitchell of the economics department of the University of California, Professor A. G. Newcomer of the English department of Stanford University and Professor Lee Wiener, assistant professor in the department of Slavic language and literature of Harvard and author of a complete set of Tolstoy's works.

The Truxton Beale essay contest is an annual contest for two prizes aggregating $1000, which have been provided for by Regent of the University Truxton Beale.

RICHMOND WELL DOWN 500 FEET

Progress Made by Bore When Soft Clay Is Encountered.

RICHMOND, March 2.—Considerable progress is now being made by the Richmond Natural Gas and Oil Company in its work of sinking the oil well upon which it has been working for three months past, and today the 500-foot mark was attained. For a month past progress has been slow because of the formation through which the drillers were at work was a hard blue rock, but a few days ago this was penetrated and a soft clay material was encountered, which is comparatively easy for the big bore.

William Casey is at the head of the drilling operations and predicts that the oil being searched for will be found in the next few hundred feet of depth. John Nichol, president of the company, is also confident of the ultimate results and states that the well will be bored to a depth of 1500 feet if necessary. Signs of both oil and gas have been encountered from time to time as the drill went down.

PULLMAN MAY JOIN RICHMOND

Many Citizens Object to Proposed Plan of Forming a New Town.

PULLMAN, March 2.—Although about 300 citizens of Pullman, Stege and Rust have voted at mass meetings to incorporate a separate municipality of the three communities and have committees out obtaining signatures for a petition for such purpose, a large number of Pullman residents, who did not participate in the meetings held recently at Stege, because they did not favor the incorporation of a new town, are circulating a petition for annexation to Richmond, and have a large number of signers. The workmen of the Pullman Car Works, some 800 strong, are in favor of annexation, as they are practically all residents of Richmond already, and can obtain the benefits of city government and conveniences without going to the added expense of organizing and maintaining a separate municipality. A mass meeting of these residents is to be called at an early date to take action on the annexation proposition. The people of Richmond also favor this step and will lend all possible aid to the project.

ROUTINE MEETING OF COUNCIL COMMITTEE

ALAMEDA, March 2.—Purely routine business came before the council committee last night. A petition, signed by 150 names, requesting the council to order removed a dangerous house at Chestnut and Lincoln streets, was presented. The petitioners claim that the house projects into the street and is an eyesore. The property is owned by C. A. Borie. The petition was referred to the street department to report on.

The city clerk was authorized to purchase a new typewriter.

President Bullock reported on the water meeting held in Oakland Thursday by the mayors and council heads of the east bay cities. The council president said that a long list of questions for the People's Water company had been prepared at the meeting. The city clerk was instructed to send the questions to the water company.

Mayor Nov reported that he has received anonymous letters threatening to boycott the mayor's market and the mayor did not make the Stanton street station stop permanent. The mayor laughingly explained that this was the first time that he was aware that he was in a meeting about water. The mayor has pressed Councilman Hammond of his in league with Mayor Nov to keep the company from making Stanton station a permanent stop.

LATEST NEWS FROM OUTSIDE TOWNS

WOMAN TO RUN
FOR TOWN OFFICE

W. C. T. U. to Put Forward a Candidate for Trustee of San Leandro.

SAN LEANDRO, March 2.—It is rumored in official circles here today that the local branch of the W. C. T. U. is advocating the candidacy of a prominent woman for a seat on the board of town trustees. It is stated on good authority that certificates of nomination are being circulated for signatures by the suffrage workers, who are making a fight to assure the nomination and election of trustees in the approaching election in sympathy with their policy.

Mrs. S. M. Woodman, president of the union, will neither deny nor acknowledge the truth of the rumor, saying it is to the best interests of the women to work quietly. Certificates will have to be filed with the town clerk by March 8. It will then be learned what candidates the anti-suffrage forces are backing.

From present indications the municipal election will be one of the most bitterly contested in the history of the community. The suffrage forces are making a bold move for their own selection.

MEN AND RELIGION

MOVEMENT AT HAYWARD

HAYWARD, March 2.—Hayward will be at the midst of the Men and Religion Forward Movement next Wednesday night, March 6, when a procession and mass meeting will be held under the leadership of Dr. E. J. Solari, often spoken of as "the father of the movement."

The gathering will be held in the Hayward Methodist Episcopal church under the auspices of all the local protestant churches.

Indiana's Crack Middleweight Here to Box for Oakland Wheelmen March 7

JACK DILLON IS ON HAND TO MEET WALTER COFFEY

Crack Eastern Middleweight Looms Up as Formidable Opponent for Aspirants for Title; Cove to Meet Braughman

By BERT LOWRY.

Jack Dillon, one of the real contenders for the middleweight championship of the world, is with us. The Indianapolis crack arrived at Oakland yesterday at 1 o'clock and after a short stay made his way to Joe Miller's training camp, at which place he will prepare for his scrap with Walter Coffey before the Oakland Wheelmen next Thursday evening.

The Dillon-Coffey bout was originally scheduled for March 6, but was then postponed until the 13th to allow Dillon more time to condition himself.

Upon his arrival yesterday he said that he was willing to let the date be set for March 13, so that there would be plenty of time for him to train for his bout with Coffey later on and because he was in such good shape now that he did not need a whole lot of conditioning to be fit.

Therefore, Dillon and Coffey will meet at Piedmont pavilion on March 13. The writer, along with Manager Geo. Ely, met the easterner at the Sixteenth street depot, and the whole appearance of the newcomer impresses one with the feeling that he is all that the eastern critics have said about him and that, in fact, he is a fighter on the lines of Tom Sharkey, being broad of shoulders and muscular.

His head is a well shaped oval and is graced with two lovely cauliflower ears which is proof enough that he can take a wallop. His arms are like those of the Village Blacksmith, large and powerful, and the writer is of the opinion that he can deliver a blow like the kick of the old family mule.

Early, Dillon leaves an excellent impression and his record shows that he can and will fight and that is just about what the men are looking for.

IS ACCOMPANIED BY HIS FAMILY. That Dillon is a home man is evident from his line of conversation and he shows that the boxing game with him is purely business. His wife, a comely little woman, is with him and so is his brother, Tom. Charles Forbush, a trainer of note, from the east, is also in the party which is proof that Dillon believes in being fit and ready when called on to defend himself in the many art of self-defense.

In speaking of his trip west, Dillon said:

"While I have seen but little of Oakland it looks to me like a beautiful place, and after an hour's stay here I intend to come over here and spend a week or so looking around."

"As to my battle with Coffey, they tell me he is a real fighter and his recent trip through the east proves that. Well and good. I like to rip and tear after my opponents and men of the caliber of Coffey is just what I need."

"Of course, I am confident that I shall beat him, else I never would have made the trip across the country. I am glad I am to have the opportunity to fight for the title and I shall do my level best to show the people of this city that I am in the ring for fame and glory."

All this was said without gusto or an attempt to brag but with all the confidence in the world of those who heard Dillon talk were greatly impressed with his manners and already at this early date the fans are beginning to warm up to the easterner.

IS HARD AT WORK AT MILLET'S.

After arriving in San Francisco Dillon went immediately to Millet's and worked with him and his family and trainers. Then he hustled back to Jim Coffey's office where he met matchmaker Moffitt of the Oakland Wheelmen. Without fuss or fussing Dillon affixed his name to the articles of agreement for his battle with Coffey and then took up the proposed meeting with Frank Klaus for Coffey later on in the month.

In this confab he wasted no words, but busy said that he was here to fight any and all who disputed his right to be considered a middleweight; possibility and that Klaus was just as good to him as anybody else. That kind of talk was good to hear and before he left again for Millet's to begin the grind of conditioning, today Dillon had completed all his arrangements for his bout with Coffey as well as with Klaus.

Later in the evening Manager Ely arranged with Tom Sharkey to send Charley Horn to Millet's as well as Cleve Hawkins and by the time the fans begin to hear that the easterner will be hard at the grind.

Besides the regular work Dillon will do considerable boxing and tomorrow will hold open house at Millet's for the benefit of the fans and will continue to hold open house each day from 2 to 6 on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for the benefit of those who care to see him in action.

COFFEY BACK AT WORK.

When Walter Coffey heard that it was necessary to set the date back to March 13, he grabbed a racket and the evening and he was again at the grind.

And he found a merry crowd boxing with them. The easterner was at the grind, for he is to box one of the preliminaries at the Wheelmen's show, and that is sufficient to say that whenever Coffey starts the fans see action.

Otto Berg, the northwestern middleweight, is also at White's and so is Tommy Murphy, all getting ready for ring engagements which will fill in next week.

For Coffey, the Santa Rosa boy looks mighty good and no matter how tough Dillon may be he will find Coffey a worthy foe. Jim Buckley, keen judge of fighting men, said that he liked the style of Coffey and figured him a good, clever boy and George Engle, manager of Frank Klaus, spoke likewise.

This afternoon and the rest of the training session Coffey will go through the regular grind each day and will have assistants while Dave Mills will superintend affairs and occasionally box with the Californian.

CRACK SOCCERITES WILL COMPETE AT FREEMAN'S

Pastimes and Burns Teams to Clash in First Round for Silver Trophy.

Tomorrow afternoon at Freeman's park the first round of the California Football Association will be played between the Pastimes and Burns. The Pastimes are the present cup holders. They have been holding regular weekly practices and are reported to be in the trim for the fray. The management will rearrange the lineup somewhat, otherwise the same players will represent the team that have played all season.

The Burns club is playing great soccer just now. They are on even terms with their rivals, the Pastimes, having won one and lost one against them in the league competition just ended. The Burns have greatly strengthened themselves by the return of the formidable fullback, "Bill" Selkirk, of coast league fame. Selkirk was principally through his playing that they snatched their victory from the Thistles last Sunday.

A record crowd of soccer fans will be on hand, weather permitting, and it is a foregone conclusion that the contest will be the closest ever played at Freeman's. The lineup of the teams follows:

Pastimes. Positions. Burns.
Goalkeeper.....Goalkeeper.....
Right Back.....Right Back.....
Center Half.....Center Half.....
Right Half.....Right Half.....
Center Forward.....Center Forward.....

Referee, J. Chown. Linesmen, Fawcett and Wardlaw. Kickoff at 2:30 p. m. prompt.

OAKLAND POLY WILL MEET BERKELEY AT BASKETBALL

Oakland Poly High basketball team will meet the fast Berkeley team at St. Mary's court on Thursday, March 7, at 8 p. m.

Both teams are exceptionally fast, each having a victory over the speedy Oakland players with the advantage in score favoring Berkeley.

A large delegation of rooters from each school with megaphones and bands will furnish a lively afternoon sport.

The Polytechnic line-up will be probably as follows:

Forwards—Clark and Quigg; centers, Fox and Hanley; guards, McMahon, Fany and Papp.

IF THE BOUTS ARE ON SQUARE CHICAGO IS TO SEE BOXING

JEFF CLARK IS A WINNER

JEFF CLARK, March 2.—Jeff Clark of Philadelphia fought Harry Wilson of Chicago last night in a second round bout here last night. This disposition of another bout for recognition in the middleweight rank.

BERKELEY DEFEATS THE OAKLAND HIGH AT BASKETBALL

Rival Players Have Desperate Struggle on St. Mary's Courts.

The Oakland high basketball team struggled mightily yesterday afternoon to stave off defeat in the hands of the Berkeley high five, but were finally forced to acknowledge defeat, the final score being 24 to 10.

The contest was one of the hardest ever witnessed between the rival schools and it was the superior weight of the winners that helped defeat Oakland more than anything else. The losers were the smaller team by far and played great team work but were unable to field the ball to their advantage.

Captain Norton was easily the star of the game, his clever work on the floor winning many points for his team, while Spencer, playing center for the winners, aided his team greatly in winning. Gonzales and Whitton played the best game for the Oakland team, the former having scored all the ten of his team's points.

The first half was a neck-and-neck struggle for the honors, and the Oakland high school team succeeded in landing at the long end of a 7-10 score. In the second half the Berkeley team went in and won the game by a score of 24 to 10.

Berkeley high school—Forwards, Norton (captain), Stanton and Gardner; center, Spencer; guards, Embury, Penfield and Sebastian.

Oakland high school—Forwards Whitton, (captain), and Gonzales; center, Val Deon; guards, Witter, Reynolds and Waddell.

SPERRY CO. ABSORBS CROWN MILL CONCERN

STOCKTON, March 2.—Officials of the Sperry Flour Company and the Crown Mill Company confirmed reports that the Sperry company had absorbed the Crown mill company. The deal was consummated Wednesday in San Francisco.

It is understood that it will take about two months to settle up all details in both concerns before changes of actual management take place. Both companies have large mills in this city.

OAKLAND'S BALL SQUAD IN HURRY TO START GRIND

Nearly Every Man Signed Up Shows Inclination to Don Spangles and Make Fight for Coast League Pennant

Three more days and the grind will be on in earnest. That means that on Tuesday the "hopes" of the Oakland fans will begin the limbering up process and from then on it will be drill, drill and then drill with the squad that Manager Bud Sharpe will take to Livermore. Yesterday several of the boys, those who have been wintering hereabouts, went out to Grove street park and donned the old uniforms and tossed and batted the ball around. This afternoon they will do likewise, and tomorrow several of them will take part in impromptu ball games around the bay. Monday, bright and early, the sign will be given and the trek to the training camp will take place.

In the squad that leaves Monday will be several of last year's outfit, including Hoffman, Tiedemann, Guy, Munroe and Harding with a few of the fellows who will get the chance to show us what they know about the national game.

From various parts of the east comes the word that many of the boys have taken up their transportation and are on the way to Livermore. By Thursday every man should be at the dining table ready to pile into the good things to eat.

Carlo Mitze, the Iron Man, is putting over his contract and says that he wants $350 per month to do the backstopping for the Oakes. If he don't get the Curly, he will get some other kind of a job. Fine talk this, but it is dollars to pennies that Carlo will be one of those present when the waitress comes along and tells the boys what is on the bill of fare.

But if Carlo should remain out of the fold, Sharpe has others to fall back on and he isn't backward in saying that Tiedemann is going to be one big star behind the bat. Then there is Rorher, who looks like a real pitcher, as well as young Gleason, the Portland recruit.

Second baseman Leard of whom great and dandy things are expected has his ticket. In fact, he has already boarded the train at Utica, New York, and should be here either tonight or tomorrow.

Goode who looks to take Clyde Ware's place is hiking from the Windy City and Hill, a candidate for third base is en route from his home in Michigan.

Johnny Flater who says he will win far more than he loses and ought to, for he is some pitcher, is so fond of Oakland that he is going to stick here the rest of his life and is bringing Mrs. John and the young John with him. Claire Patterson, who also is a family man, has the Mrs. and the younger Claire with him.

PITCHERS HURRYING TO CAMP. Pope, one of the new fellows in the lineup, is the training camp. So you see the local team recruits are in a measure pretty anxious to get down to work and to wear a Coast League uniform.

Bud Sharpe, big chief of the gang, is now at Livermore putting the finishing touches to the training camp and when the boys trek in on Monday everything will be fit and ready for the try out.

C. COMISKEY COMING WEST TO TRAIN IN 1915

CHICAGO, March 2.—President Comiskey of the White Sox will be in San Francisco with his baseball team for the opening of the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915, according to word from the special train now carrying the South Side club to Waco, Tex.

ONE LARGE FIB TOLD BY CHINESE

And the Remarkable Part of It Is, He Got Caught in It.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Wu Chung, a well-to-do laundryman in the Mott-street district of New York, can today claim the distinction of being probably the first Chinese ever sentenced for perjury in New York. He appeared as a witness in the case of a fellow countryman charged with being in the country in violation of the exclusion law and swore that in the fall of 1909 he had seen the prisoner at work in a drug store in Mott street. The government proved that the Chinese in question was in reality all this time confined in the penitentiary at Malone, N. Y., after being caught trying to evade the guards on the Canadian border. Chung was sentenced to pay a fine of $250 and serve two months on Blackwell's Island.

STEERS RUN WILD FOLLOWING WRECK

Animals From Texas Succeeded in Tying Up Traffic for Two Hours.

CHICAGO, March 2.—Three Texas steers which were hurled from a car in a wreck at the Chicago Junction tracks and Cottage Grove avenue ran wild on the Kemora branch of the South Side elevated road last night and succeeded in tying up traffic for two hours. Forty other cattle were piled in a heap at the bottom of a forty-foot embankment. A few were killed and the efforts of many stockmen and policemen were taxed in keeping the remainder penned until they could be driven into a temporary corral. The three remaining on the elevated leaped to the tracks of the South Side elevated road, which runs parallel with the railroad tracks for several blocks, and ran up and down for several blocks before they were finally captured. Passengers on trains and residents of the neighborhood were in terror for a time, but no one was injured.

OREGON EXPRESS LEAVES RAILS; NO ONE HURT

RED BLUFF, March 2.—The locomotive and tender of the north-bound Oregon Express were derailed in the yards at Vint at 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning, and ran a distance of 400 feet on the ties before the train could be stopped. The derailed engine and tender remained upright, and none of the coaches was derailed. No one was injured. The track is level and straight, or serious results might have followed. A brake shoe broke and fell on the rail, derailing the locomotive. Another engine was sent from here and took the coaches north after a delay of two hours. A wrecking crew cleared the main line in a few hours.

BRITTON HONORED BY HIS OFFICIALS

General Manager of Gas and Electric Company Paid a High Tribute.

The Pacific Gas & Electric Company's department and district managers and division superintendents held a reunion in Oakland last Saturday. A feature of the occasion was the presentation to Vice-President and General Manager John A. Britton of a handsome set silver for his new home at San Mateo, now in course of construction. The reunion opened in the morning with a visit to Station C, where a tour of the works included an inspection of the new 12,000 kilowatt steam turbine. In the afternoon there was an excursion to the aviation meet under the leadership of Frank A. Leach Jr., Oakland district manager, and in the evening the clubs room of the Nile club was the scene of activities. There the turbine was again the subject of discussion, and Engineer Frank H. Varney read an interesting paper which was illustrated by stereoscopic views, with R. J. Cantrell as operator. The paper was followed by a general discussion upon the principle of the turbine, during which Varney subjected himself to some close questioning, particularly upon the general efficiency of the turbine as compared with that of the reciprocating engine.

Frank Leach called Britton to the stage and in an address made the presentation on behalf of the district managers and division superintendents who testified their appreciation for their chief. Earlier in the evening Britton had made an address to the district managers speaking with humor and charged with messages of confidence. When the surprise came Britton was taken off his feet. He tried hard to "come back," looked up at the ceiling and after a long pause essayed to say something. It was of no use, and with a wave of the hand he gave up the attempt.

DIAZ IS WILLING TO TRY IT AGAIN

Will Return to Mexico as President if His People Want Him.

NEW YORK, March 2.—General Porfirio Diaz, ex-president of Mexico, who sailed into exile from Vera Cruz on May 3 of last year, is willing to come back to Mexico and lead the people out of their present difficulties if "a strong call" is sent to him. Such was the statement made by him in a letter of recent date to former trusted lieutenant and official under his government, who is now in New York. General Diaz is now living in retirement with his son, Colonel Porfirio Diaz Jr., at Cape Dali, near Toulon, in the south of France. The former president of Mexico expressed his willingness to return to the land over which he ruled as dictator for thirty-seven years. In the following words: "I will say in my farewell letter that if the Mexican people needed me, I would come again. Should the people involved in the present difficulties send a strong call to me, I would fulfill my promise."

SALVATION ARMY IS IN NEED OF FUNDS

The Salvation Army is overwhelmed with applicants for aid. According to Ensign A. E. Baynton, who is in charge of the organization in Oakland, financial aid is urgently needed. WOMAN IS ACCUSED.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Humbert Betti, a bartender of 624 Columbus avenue, complained to the police of the Barbary coast squad this morning that Lillian Williams, a waitress, had robbed him of $10. The officer arrested the woman, but when searched by the matrons at the city prison the property was not found. She was, however, charged with grand larceny and Betti summoned as a witness against her.

HISTORY OF GAME PROTECTION TOLD

United States Biological Survey Issues Summary of Laws.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The record of the United States during the past 125 years in the way of game protection is summarized in a publication just prepared by the Biological Survey, Department of Agriculture. The department keeps close track of game laws passed in the different states and of how they work, so that it can generally tell an inquirer in a moment whether a proposed law is good or bad, because some have tried to do it wrong. The new books show that the English sparrow was protected by law for many years after it was brought to this country and even in the District of Columbia until 1889, fourteen years after the establishment of the Biological Survey, which is charged with supervision of the federal game protection laws.

HAZERS DROPPED AT STATE FARM

Robert Baird and Russel Noyes Expelled on Charge of Student Jury.

SACRAMENTO, March 2.—As a result of the findings of the "grand jury of presentment" of the self-government organization of seventy young men of the state farm at Davis, two of their number have been dropped from the rolls for the hazing of Charles Hearn of San Francisco last Saturday night. The student organization has been in existence for some time, and when it was reported to the faculty committee on discipline that Hearn's hair had been cropped, and that he had been subjected to more or less rough hazing the affair was turned over to the student body for investigation. The student grand jury summoned Hearn and several students who participated in the hazing and subjected them to a cross-examination. It found five students guilty of hazing, but recommended that three of them be treated with leniency by the authorities. In the case of Robert Baird and Russel Noyes, the faculty committee ordered their names dropped from the rolls. The other three students, whose names have been withheld, will be disciplined. In explaining Baird and Noyes the faculty committee says that it had in mind a state law enacted in 1907, which makes hazing a misdemeanor.

WOMEN WORKS 'ENVELOPE GAME'

Miss Helen Carlson Held to the Grand Jury Following Discovery of Swindle.

CHICAGO, March 2.—Miss Helen Carlson, known in many parts of Chicago as the envelope woman, was held to the grand jury by Municipal Judge Cottrell yesterday. Assistant State's Attorney Brothers said Miss Carlson had swindled Chicago shopkeepers of more than $5000 in the last three months.

Miss Carlson's method, said the assistant state's attorney, was known as the "envelope game." She made a specialty of bakeries, delicatessens and tea stores where there were young women clerks. Advancing to the counter Miss Carlson would exhibit a handful of silver and "sell" bills. "I want to send some money to my mother," she would explain. "Can you give me a $20 bill or two $10 bills for this change?" She then would place the large bill in a stamped envelope while the shopkeeper was counting the change. The change would be short forty or fifty cents. When the shopkeeper called attention to this Miss Carlson would exclaim: "Oh, I must have left the rest on the dining room table at home. I will run right over and get it. Here is your bill," she would conclude, as she handed over the sealed envelope, ostensibly the one in which the bill had been placed, and picked up the pile of change. When the envelope was opened by shopkeeper it was found to be empty. Miss Carlson's return it was found to contain blank paper.

WM. BAYARD CUTTING DIES ABOARD TRAIN

KANSAS CITY, March 2.—William Bayard Cutting is dead aboard a special train that was bringing him home from New Mexico. Cutting was 72 years old. He had been a society leader and a man of wide business affairs. He was trustee of the United States Trust Company and a national bank, the Southern Pacific railroad and the Metropolitan opera house.

The country place of the Cutting family at Oakdale, L. I., with its 3200 acres, its trout preserves and costly equipment of the district, is the adjoining country home of William K. Vanderbilt.

FREE CANAL TOLL FIGHT IS WAGED

Pacific Mail in Struggle and Transcontinental Railroads Concerned.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The Pacific Mail and transcontinental railroads have begun a bitter fight for such Panama canal legislation as will give the Pacific Mail Company free use of the new waterway. Vice-President Schwin of the Pacific Mail and Maxwell Everts, general counsel of the Harriman lines, are here busily engaged in interviewing Senators and Representatives. They also have seen President Taft and Secretary of War Stimson. In line with Elbert H. Gray, Andrew Carnegie and others who have been here lately in the interests of legislation they strongly advocate placing their steamship lines under central control of the Interstate Commerce Commission. This view is regarded with suspicion by the Pacific coast business men who are here fighting for a free canal for American shipping not controlled by the railroads. The railroads, they argue, are under control of the interstate commerce commission, yet the railroads continue to do about as they please in the matter of rates. What the Pacific coast wants is benefit from the new waterway, and they contend that they will get no benefit if tolls are to be charged or if the railroads are to monopolize the steamship lines using the canal.

BASS' ASSOCIATES TO SUPPORT TAFT

Progressive Republicans of New Hampshire Abandon Governor.

CONCORD, N. H., March 2.—Thirty-eight leading associates of Governor Robert P. Bass in the campaign of the Progressive Republicans that resulted in the overturning of the politics of the State last year have decided not to follow the Governor have organized themselves as the Taft Progressives, their platform being stated in a series of resolutions favoring the re-nomination of President Taft. William J. Tucker, president-elect at the opening conference of the new organization.

CONVICT INDICTED FOR MURDER OF ANOTHER

SAN RAFAEL, March 2.—The grand jury yesterday returned two indictments against San Quentin convict, Ed Delahante, was indicted for the murder of a fellow prisoner, C. Kaufman, alias "St. Louis Fat," and Charles Murphy was charged with assault to murder committed on Captain of the Yard S. Randolph about a year ago, at which time Murphy slashed Randolph four times in the back as the latter was going through the yard. The jury presented its final report to Judge Zook and was discharged. All of the county affairs were found in good condition with but two exceptions. The jury recommended that the prisoners in the county jail be provided with hot baths during bad weather, as cold water had a depressing effect on people not used to frequent bathing. The jury also recommended that an electric light be placed in the cellar of the insane ward so that the sheriff could turn it on before going to the wicket and thus be able to avoid an avalanche of refuse aimed at him by an inmate.

AUTO CLIMBS TREE: FOUR ARE INJURED

SANTA ROSA, March 2.—Fra D. Pyle, real estate man, Deputy Sheriff Thomas Brown, Manuel Macedo and Manuel Post were in Pyle's big touring car when it toppled over a grade between Guerneville and Monte Cristo and went careening over the bluff a distance of 275 feet. All four men were buried under the wreckage. The car caught in the branches of a large redwood tree, hanging suspended over another drop of 200 feet into the river below.

Pyle went to Guerneville and phoned to this city for assistance and hired a horse and buggy to return to the scene of the accident. He had not proceeded far on his journey when the front wheel of the buggy came off and the horse ran away, but was stopped before serious damage was done. Then the automobile sent out to the rescue from here got stuck in the sand. Housemovers with machinery left here to haul the machine out of the tree and back onto the road.

WESTERN CANADA PLANS SECESSION

Defeat of Reciprocity Branded Effort of East to Crush the West.

WINNIPEG, Can., March 2.—Western Canada was stirred by the declaration in the Manitoba legislature of William Molloy, a Liberal member from Laverdore, that he would support a resolution looking to the separation of Western Canada from the eastern part of the Dominion which, he charged with injuring and showing hostility to the western section by its defeat of American reciprocity. "No greater blow," said the member from Laverdore, "has ever been dealt Western Canada than the rejection of reciprocity. The people of Eastern Canada deliberately have set themselves to injure Western Canada and in the course of ten years there will be such an agitation in Western Canada against their binding acts that nothing but separation will suffice." His remarks were loudly applauded among Liberal members.

TROUBLE PILES UP FOR REV. F. NORRIS

Writes Letters to Self, Indicted for Perjury, Church and Home Burn.

FORT WORTH, Texas, March 2.—A few hours after the arrest of Rev. Frank Norris of the First Baptist church, who was indicted last night on the charge of perjury, his home burned. The fire came as a sequel to a chain of mysterious events in which the slain minister has figured. The most startling development came last night when Norris was charged by the grand jury with having written letters to himself in which he was threatened with death if he did not leave town. Norris first attracted attention here by a campaign for enforcement of prohibition laws. He then declared an attempt had been made to assassinate him. This was followed by the destruction of the First Baptist church by fire. Norris reported a second attempt had been made on his life after this and traveled with a bodyguard. Then he exhibited the warning letters which the grand jury declared had been written by himself.
